P.S. Adios I think that's right, after all I'm only 3rd year

TOM PHIPPS

Dirty Tom,
You'll just have to give me a test on the PIUS! I'm learning fast. Ace, deuce, nine, eleven! Not bad, huh. Always remember The elephant feats and Finis Poelinus! Etc! Etc!

Your Bro. Brother,
Denny Olsen

Hi Tom
Well were really had our good times this past year. I sure kinda miss living with you this summer. Be sure you write me once in a while from oregon. Don't forget we are going to Portland at the end of sum-

This Was a Year-Most Crowded, Most Stormy,

Yes — it was "the most" —
the most acute class room shortage the most roomless teachers the biggest purses
the skinniest pants
the biggest winds
the warmest February the biggest all-school project.

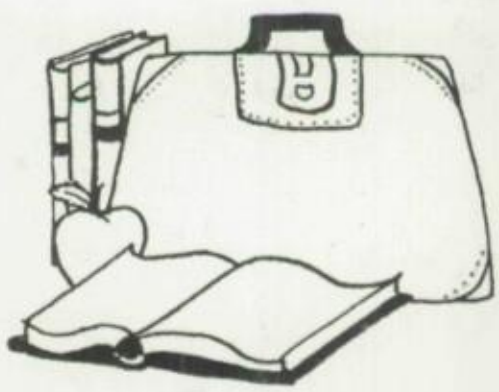
The grounds crew, right, were glimpsed from a classroom window trying to save one of the giant firs, pride of the campus, damaged in the Columbus Day storm.

Mr. Kemmerer and Mr. Frame, far right, were only two of the teachers who carried their materials from room to room, conducting their classes wherever a room was vacated for a period. A new building, rising across the street, gave them courage with its promise of bright new classrooms to come.

The skinniest pants, below, and the biggest purses, lower far right, set teenagers of this year apart.

Karl Blade, below center, all-school project chairman, marked the student body's upward climb on the biggest project in the school's history — the $3000 end bleachers in the gym.



Most Work, Most Fun

Tom,

Well as you know, we won't have the "Bear" next year, therefore we won't have a class to run, therefore we may have to settle down and study to get an "A", therefore next year could quite ~~possibly~~ possibly be a royal drag, We'll See! Rick.

Tom,

Well I'm sure sorry I wasn't in the Beings' class with you this year, we could have had a riot. We'll have to get together next year & make up for it. Of course maybe we could have a real class (yeah!!) party. Right?? Gads, its our duty. (Good grief!! There I go thinking like a senior.) Say Tom, I just might duy (sneakers) car. Later it'll be fun, reminisce during SENIORS (low-dollar) this summer. Good luck in the Burlington that I might see ya about and overhaul it. Well, Tom, I'll drags. (yeah!!) hope to see you friends with you. I'll get together sometime and make to get together always a friend, and we'll make always. (P.S. I'm angry, you forgot to save me a page Gay

Tom,

I've had been great fun getting to know you this past year. Do you remember all those experiences in class. I doubt it. I really had a window operator. Good luck in future years. Sincerely, Libby Slaga

Superior Schools Develop

Principal William E. Gurney, Superintendent W. T. Phipps.

Vice Principal Ray T. Cowell, Girls' Counselor Alma Murray.

Through Superior Leaders

A greatly needed science and art building, an expanded teaching staff, a revised English curricula, and who do we thank? The school board, of course.

Elected by the community, the school board serves us well. Its main objective is to arrive at new ideas to improve our educational system. What they have done is reflected by the quality of our student body. We students of MVHS salute them. Around their conference table below are: STANDING, Hoff Tronsdal, Eldon Wiggs, Roger Morrison, Rex Wilson, and Elmer Berg. SEATED, are Earl Hanson, Dr. Harry Worley, Chairman, Gladys Larson, Marion Kenney, and Malcolm Glover.

Language Arts Staff and Plans Grow to Keep

Seemingly lost in a sea of auditorium seats, Mrs. LeMieux's speech classes nevertheless are learning the art of public speaking.

Tom,
We've got to spend more time out at the shop this summer. They need us to work on patios or. I think he needs a speed time. We've had a wonderful time in Biology! Right Tom. I hope we have some classes together. I'll be waiting for you to come up to my house and throw a speed time on the 56. good luck in the future it a good man.

Speech

Mount Vernon High School builds presidents and in order to become a president good speech is required. Do you recall that great first year in high school, that first big speech, and that nervour feeling? That was all a part of learning how to express yourself with poise and self control.

English

Last summer the English curriculum underwent a tremendous revision by teachers from our school district. This curriculum provides a sequential program in language, literature, composition and speech — a program that will provide students with a complete background in English. Taking part in a ten-week in-service training program conducted through the University of Washington, teachers in the department prepared themselves for this new program. Headed by Mr. Hayden, with the addition of Mr. Frame, Mr. Fite and Mrs. Dahl, the English staff has grown to one of the largest ever in the history of our school.

IVA M. DERRICK — Kansas STC B.S., library.

JESSE H. JAMESON — U of Utah B.S., M.A., English, journalism, library, Bulldog advisor.

RUTH TORRELL — U of W B.A., textbook librarian, audio-visual director.

Library

What's this? The library has wheels. With an ever-growing student body, more literary material must be available faster and this is why the card catalog and general-career information trucks have been mobilized. The library with its near 6,500 books plus a tremendous number of reference materials is the center of our high school's educational system. There is hardly a period when the library is not in near-capacity use as teachers from all departments assign more and more research work. Mrs. Derrick and Mr. Jameson, librarians, prove almost every day that they are among the more cheerfully helpful people in the school.

RICHARD FITE — U of W B.A., English, asst. dramatics.

JAMES A. FRAME — U of W B.A., English.

PATRICK T. HAYDEN — U of W B.A., English, dept. head.

A. W. VIVIAN — WW State College B.A., English, asst. football and basketball coach.

WILBUR F. WIGNER — U of W B.A., English.

History Points to Need for Foreign Language

JOE DAY — Northwestern SC B.S., U of Oklahoma M.A., world history, American history, golf.

RICHARD L. DIXON — WW State College B.A., geography and earth science, tennis.

BEN G. EDLUND — WW State College B.A., American and Northwest history, asst. swimming.

LEO G. HAKE — CW State College B.A., and M Ed, orientation, counselor, football, asst. basketball.

BOB LeBEAU — WW State College B.A., orientation, world history.

WILLIAM E. LEE — CW State College B.A., American history, basketball.

JOSEPH J. MURPHY — U of W B.A., American government, contemporary world problems, cross country, track.

This isn't a dungeon, left. It's just Mr. Edlund's classroom where he is teaching Northwest history.

History

What good is history? Who needs it? Why not forget the past? These common questions are answered in the history and social science classes of our school. Starting with a semester of orientation in their freshman year, students at MVHS are required to take four years in this field, which includes American history, Washington state resources, civics and either world history or world geography. Our living standards or way of life today stem from the very beginning of our nation and the simplest form of government. That's why we study history and the other social sciences.

Study

Foreign Languages

Conterdite! Depechez-vous! Vamanos! Yes, hurry or you will be late for class. That's what students were saying this year about the new location of the foreign language buildings. To make room for the new addition, the annex buildings were moved to the parking lot. Although three extra minutes were given to eliminate tardiness, sometimes students found it hard to make their next class on time, especially with those crocodile infested pools of water lying in their paths.

There is nothing too "up-to-date" for MVHS students. Above left, is a first-year Spanish student working in the language laboratory. This lab equipment is used by first, second and third year Spanish and French students, under the careful supervision of Mrs. Brooks, Miss Hofer and Mr. Fryer.

Take those notes and be sure they are right when Mr. Lee, left, lectures to his junior American history classes. This is just a typical scene in all of the social science classes at MVHS where students get plenty of practice in skills that will aid them in future life.

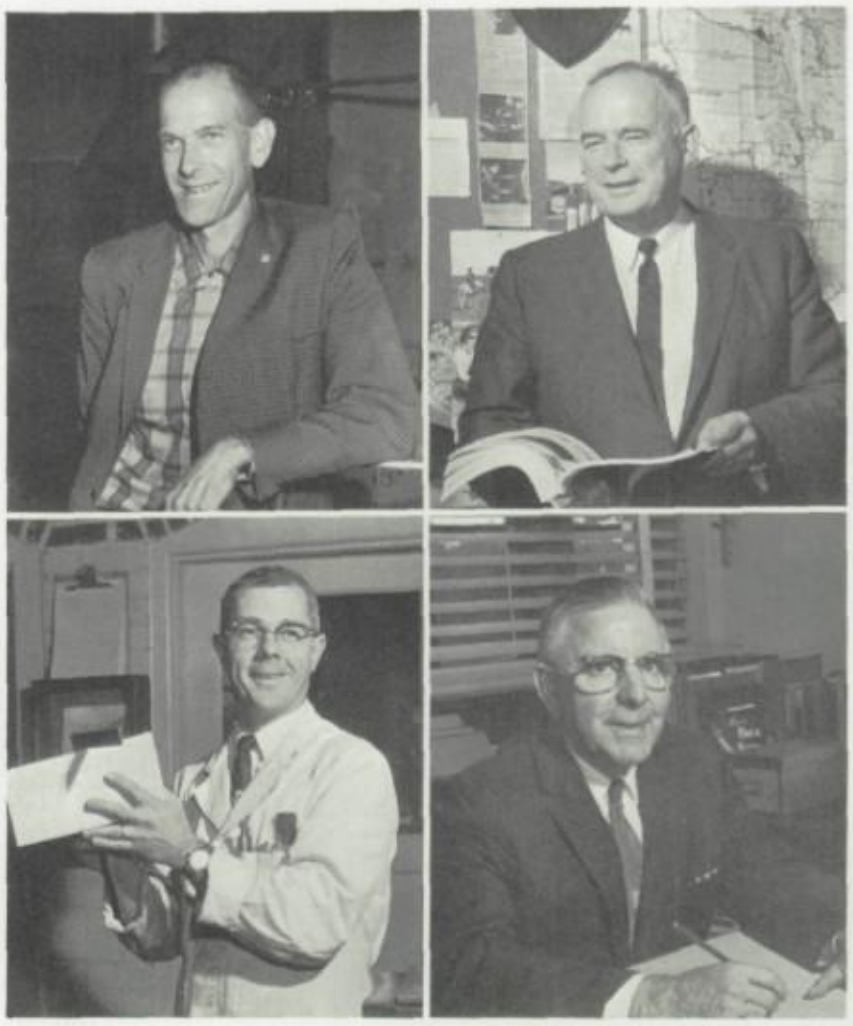
ILA G. BROOKE — U of BC B.A., French.

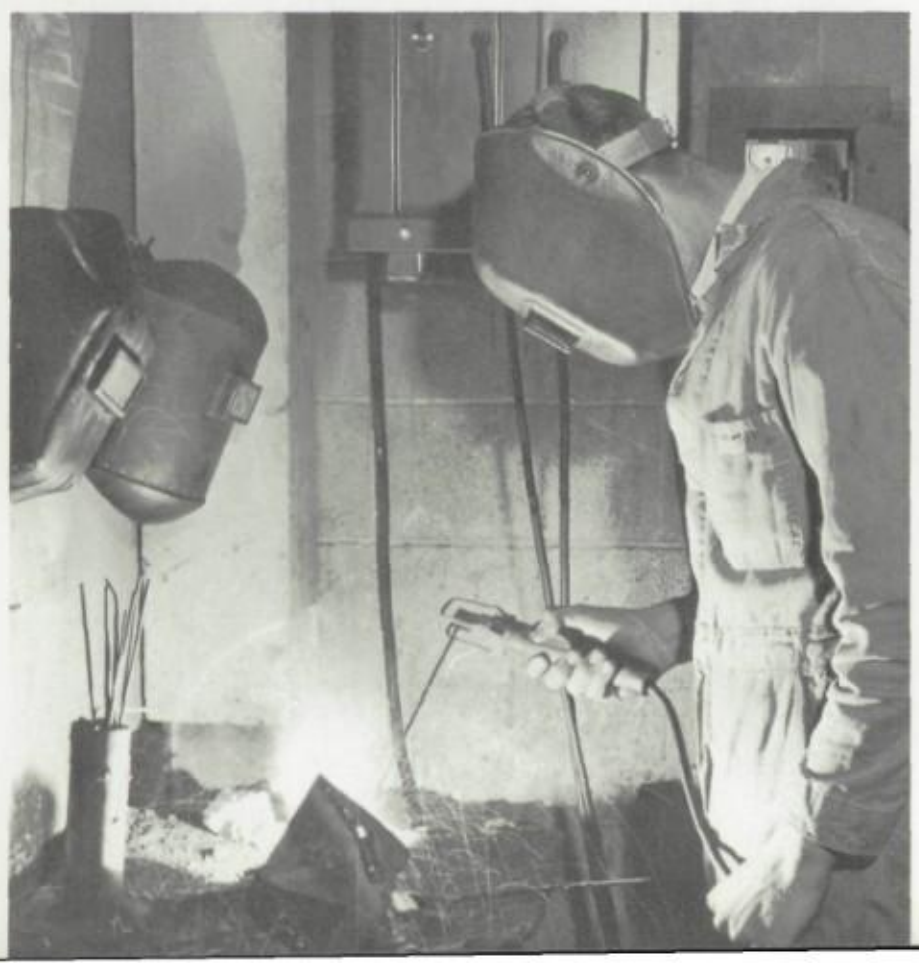
VINCENT P. FRYER — U of Minnesota B.S., Spanish, Spanish Club.

GERALDINE HOFER — U of O B.A., English, Spanish, asst. Spanish Club advisor.

RUTH LISLE — U of W B.A., Latin.

Vocations and Home Economics Develop





GEORGE P. MOWRER — WSU B.A., agriculture, FFA.

HILDING C. NELSON — WSU B.S., agriculture, FFA.

H. BRUCE PARKER — WSU B.A., wood shop.

JOE PEDERSEN — WSU B.S., architectural and mechanical drawing.

Vocations

Contributing to Mount Vernon High School's elective subjects are the industrial art courses. Taking a semester of woodshop, mechanical drawing, or welding may help a student determine his career or win a scholarship.

Home Economics

Strange things like green mashed potatoes happen in home economics. Nearly every girl wants to learn the techniques of cooking and sewing and the home economics courses bring the kitchen and the sewing room to school. By the way, anyone for burnt toast and a blouse with the sleeves in backwards?

Robyn Berg, above left, concentrates on learning one of the well-known roads to a boy's heart. Vocational classes teach skills by the dozens. Welding is demonstrated, left, by a member of Mr. Mowrer's upper division class.

Skills - Physical Education Develops Youth

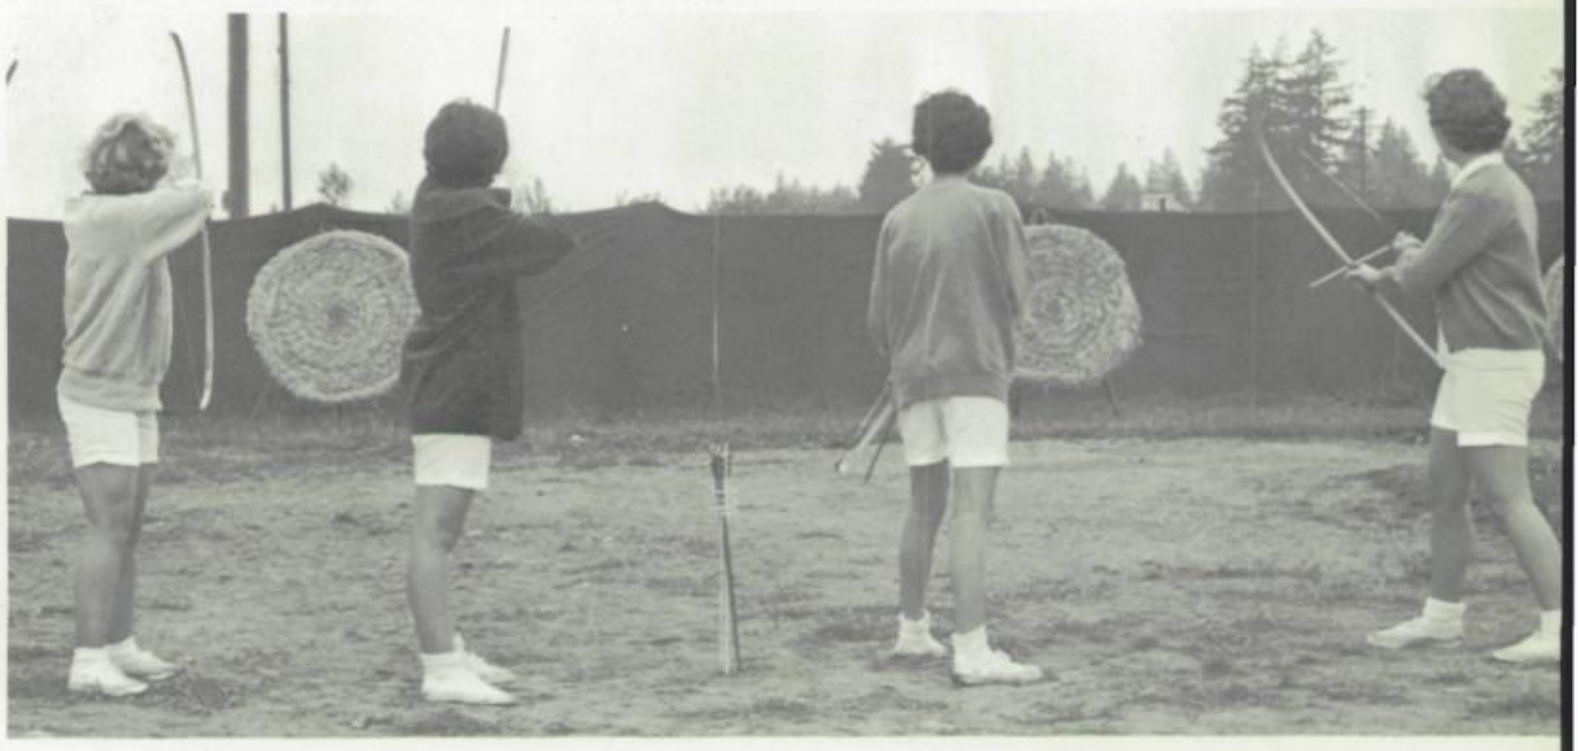
Physical Education

Keep in shape boys, or those girls will be first string on the basketball team. Keeping in good physical condition is a must in the course required for both boys and girls.

MURIEL GURNEY — WSU B.A., home economics, family living, Horizon Club.

RODA INMAN — WSA B.A., home economics.

NANCY G. ZIEGLER — WSU B.A., home economics, F.H.A.



Aiming for a bullseye, or at least the target, are members of the sophomore archery class. This is just one of the athletic activities required for all girls during their first two years in high school.

PERRY A. BROWN — WSU B.S., phys. ed., asst. football, swimming.

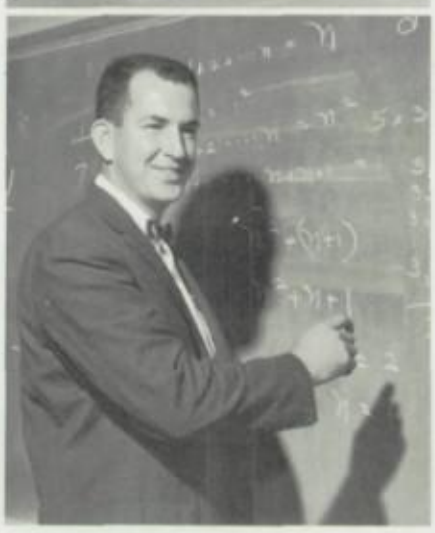
MARY ELLEN BYERLY — U of Illinois B.S., phys. ed., G.A.A

KATHLEEN KNOWLES — U of W B.A., phys. ed., G.A.A.

GARY KNUTZEN — WW State College B.A., U of Illinois M.S., phys. ed., asst. wrestling and track.

Science, Mathematics, Business Prepare Youth

Fabulous — magnificent — it is tops! That describes the new Bausch-Lomb, Dyna-zoom binocular microscope. This piece of equipment in the biology lab has a range power of 350 to 1,940 magnifications.



FRANCES DAVIS — WSU B.A., algebra.

ALLEN EVANS — WW State College B.A., mathematics.

Twelve of these newest and most revolutionary of typewriters brought the electronic age into the advanced typing classes.

Science

While walking down the hall one day this year did you happen to hear a bubbling noise? Most likely it came from the chemistry lab. Chemistry, and the many other sciences are chief courses in our studies. So that students have sufficient room to work with sciences, a planetarium has been built. This will be used by college and high school students.

Mathematics

Without mathematics there would be lopsided houses, crooked telephone poles, and even bad-tasting food. You might say that it takes the guesswork out of our society. MVHS has now completed its second year of a new math program beginning with the junior high level and continuing on through four years of high school, preparing students for college or for a place in the life of our community.

for Future

AL RAVNIK — WW State College B.A., mathematics.

PAUL REIMAN — PLU B.A. mathematics, Honor Society, wrestling, freshman baseball.

W. L. COPNER — WSU B.A., typing, economics, business law, ASB financial advisor.

CORNELIA HODSON — Whitman B.A., Columbia M.A., shorthand, typing, Skagina.

WALTER KEMMERER — U of W B.A., bookkeeping, typing.

Business

It's business as usual, only more so. Increased enrollments resulted in additional beginning and advanced typing classes. An after-school class takes care of the over-flow beginners and even some freshmen are in the class.

BILL DeHON — WW State College B.A., orientation, geometry, electronics.

JOSEPH S. NORLIE — Luther B.A., physics, geometry.

ROGER W. RINGSTAD — UPS B.A., OSU M.S., biology, ASB activity advisor, asst. football.

DONALD SUNDEAN — WW State College B.A., biology.

MALCOLM THOMSON — U of W B.S., chemistry.

Variety Adds Spice to MVHS Student Life

Art

Art can appropriately be called "a class of expression."

GORDON FISHER — U of W BA, arts and crafts.

CHARLES EASTON — U of W BA, social sciences and music, orchestra.

Glenn Springer sketches an idea into a picture.

Band members, such as Doug Wesley, put in many hours practice before each performance.

Music

This year the new band and choir rooms celebrated their second year of service to MVHS. The band and choirs, closely related activity-wise, provided music for the athletic events, annual concerts, and graduation.

ELVIN HALEY — U of W BA, band.

JERRY L. WRIGHT — U of W BA, choir, music fundamentals, madrigals, vocal music, operetta.

It Takes Many to Keep Wheels Turning

Always ready with a cheerful smile and a helpful word of advice are Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Williams, the office secretaries.

Busy as usual in the superintendent's office, right, are Miss Anderson, Mrs. Van-Valkenburg and Mrs. Shaw, the administration secretaries.

Up early in the morning to take us to school are our bus drivers: Homan, Rimmer, Wiles, Sibley, Snowden, Anderson, Walker, Pollock, Beath, Knight, Ervine, Allen, Donkelaar, Frank, Foster, Thomson, Armstrong, Rice, Husby, Nogle, Scott, Haase.

Delicious meals prepared by Mrs. Poppe and Mrs. Haley, lower left, keep our school population growing.

A neat, spotless school is a pleasant place. Responsible for this are our custodians, lower right, Mr. Fleck, Mr. Swartos, Mr. Anderson, and Mr. Cantrell.

Best of the luck in the next year at MV, and every year that follows Peg

Tom,
We've had a lot of fun together in Day's class haven't we. I know you tried to help me but I probably flunked anyway. (Tests) I hope we will have more classes together next year. Good Luck to a real nice guy. Hope to see ya this summer.

High School Years End

Worshipers gather in the church scene of the annual Senior Christmas Assembly. Each presents his offering, attempting to "make the bell ring."

The Class of '63 entered Mount Vernon High School and immediately elected Karl Blade, president; Cliff Highnam, vice president; Linda Harant, secretary; and Rob Thompson, treasurer.

That year the Bullpups took the county co-championship in football and the basketball championship.

As sophomores they elected Lou LaMay as president with Jock McIlraith, vice president; Bev Hunter, secretary; and Sandy Lindbeck, treasurer. Thirty-three members of the class were named to honor society.

"Sixty-three's" began to appear on letter sweaters as Bill Montgomery and Bill Williams won their football letters and Hugh Flanary and Jim Roberts won theirs in cross country in early fall.

The Juniors chose Ron Karr as their leader, and he was assisted by Jock McIlraith, vice president; Ruth Anne Forbes, secretary; and Hugh Flanary, treasurer.

Lou LeMay was elected assistant treasurer of the Associated Students and Junior song leaders were Jean Olson and Janie Nelles. "Moon River" was the theme chosen for the all-county Junior Prom and MVHS royalty were Getty Hanson and Cliff Highnam.

Holding lead roles in school dramatic and musical productions were Karl Blade, Steve Tarry, Cliff Highnam, Ann Russell, and Darwin Vanderpool. Athletically, the Bulldogs won the state wrestling championship and were undefeated in league play during the basketball season.

Advisors for the Senior Class in their last year at Mount Vernon High School were: Mr. Kemerer, Mr. Pedersen, Mrs. Davis, Mr. Fryer, Mrs. Brooke, Mr. Evans, Miss Hofer, and Mr. Mowrer. Not pictured was Mr. Brown.

Successfully for Members of the Class of '63

Busy making arrangements for one of the year's senior activities are President Dale Henley, Vice President Cliff Highnam, Secretary Bonnie Hodgin and Treasurer Bill Schuh. Some of the major projects this year were the Senior Ball, helping with Homecoming Activities, concessions for some of the games, plus spear-heading student enthusiasm in all school projects.

When school opened in the fall of 1962, the mighty Seniors elected Dale Henley as president; Cliff Highnam, vice president; Bonnie Hodgin, secretary; and Bill Schuh, treasurer. Bev Hunter was named president of Girls' Club, and Linda Harant was treasurer of the group. Homecoming ceremonies were ruled by Queen Janie Nelles; her Senior Princesses were Janet Ellestad and Janet Ferguson. Theme of the Senior Ball, "Fantasy in Frost," was presented in co-operation with the other county schools. Mount Vernon's royalty were Getty Hanson and Jock McIlraith. The class worked hard to fulfill its obligation for the all-school project, selling programs at the basketball and football games as well as taking over the concessions once during each season.

Plans for the senior sneak, senior week, baccalaureate, and commencement were made as the year sped by. And suddenly it was all over. The class of '63 became history, joining the thousands who have been graduated in the past forty years.

Senior Class Members Toast Their Classmates

Class cut-ups were Vickey Bidwell and Jerry Olson, above. Most attractive were Linda Harant, Randy Olson and Dean Anderson, at left.

Voted most likely to succeed were Jeannie Olson and Karl Blade, above. Above right are Mary Beth Light and Norm Elfstrom, who were voted by their classmates, as the most studious. Right center, are Getty Hanson and Jock McIlraith, voted nicest to be with. Lower right are Nancy Shepard and Bill Montgomery, named the most athletic.

In Various Ways

Speech class offers something challenging and new to Susie. Here, Mrs. LeMieux answers one of Susie's questions.

King and Queen of the MVHS Senior Class were Getty Hanson and Jock McIlraith. Elected by their classmates, the couple were crowned at the annual all-county Senior Ball held in November.

It's a girl!

Last year's all-school project was completed this year with the entrance of Mount Vernon High School's first foreign exchange student. From Indonesia came Susie Supjito, age 18, to enroll, learn, and graduate with the Senior Class of 1963.

Juniors, left, cavort at their annual Thanksgiving Assembly. Here students pantomime the Mayflower's long cold trip across the ocean.

Below, death bell tolls as half the "Pilgrims" die during the first year in the New World. It all took place in the annual Junior Assembly.

Upperclassmen at Last!

After two long years of waiting, the class of '64 entered MVHS in September as upperclassmen with 300 members. The year ahead was filled with activities. The dances and games held a new magic as the majority of the students now drove cars. But a great many came to realize the effort necessary to succeed academically in college. The Junior Honor Society had 45 members who had maintained a 3.2 grade average for three years. The class had a tremendous representation in all school activities. All but one of the cheerleaders were juniors, and of the 96 members in Pep Club, 66 were juniors. Many boys got their varsity letter in fall sports, with several outstanding individuals getting their second varsity letter for football and cross-country. During the winter season, juniors again excelled with many boys lettering in wrestling, basketball, and swimming.

In the spring, the baseball team was composed largely of juniors, and the track team also had a number of junior stars.

But the class of '64 excelled, not only athletically and academically, but on the stage as well. Many turned out for the grueling rehearsals of the all-school play and the operetta and took their share of bows after each performance.

One of the highlights of the year was the writing and production of the annual class assembly. Basically it was a farce, with pilgrims and a Mayflower, not to mention turkeys. Reverend Reub of the First Baptist Church gave an interesting talk before the assembly.

The Junior Class was also active in the annual formal, the Junior Prom, a joint effort of all the juniors in the county.

Chosen as leaders for the year were Jim Oftebro, president; Tom Phipps, vice president; Diane Swanson, treasurer; and Peggy Cahill, secretary.

Peggy Cahill, class secretary, right, signed up for her junior picture as Jim Oftebro, president and Tom Phipps, vice president, and Diane Swanson, treasurer, waited their turns.

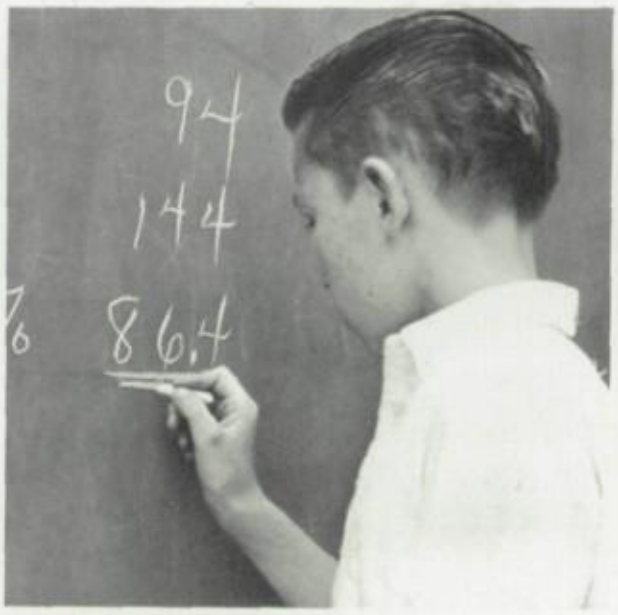
Led by Newly Elected Officers, the Sophomores

Sophomores at work . . . geometry, only one part of a busy school day.

Sophomores participate . . . in band, as well as all other MVHS student organizations.



"We're on Top" was the sophomore theme for Homecoming; their first-place float led the class entries.

Soon Become Adjusted to the Fast Pace of the Year

President Allan Beasley, Secretary Nancy Sather, Treasurer Becky DuBois and Vice President Denny Olson led the sophomores through their last year as underclassmen.

With the vim and vigor it takes to spell "Life" the Sophomores have gone places this year. In turning out for all school activities they have shown zip and pep.

Early in the school year they elected President Alan Beasley, Vice-President Denny Olsen, Secretary Nanci Sather and Treasurer Becky DuBois.

During the Homecoming festivities the Sophomores entered a float in the parade and took first place with the theme "We're Sitting On Top of the World."

The girls participated in decorating for the annual Bo Gi Ha Pa, which was held November 3 in the old gym. Many Sophomores earned their letter sweaters this year. The boys turned out for many sports with several making varsity squads. The girls earned their sweaters through G.A.A.

The class of '65 looks back on the last two years and forward with anxiety to the next two when they will become upper classmen.

This Was a Big

The Class of '66 started their high school career with great vigor. Class officers chosen were President Mark Johnson, Vice-President, John Lewis, Secretary Kathy McIlraith, and Treasurer Jim Murphy.

The undefeated football season, a feat not duplicated by many teams, was a great achievement for the frosh boys. As the season shifted to basketball and wrestling, the boys' accomplishments were almost as outstanding.

Girls busied themselves with earning GAA points and participating in Girls' Club, FHA, Tri-Hi-Y and other club activities. The class also won the Pep Award for the football season.

All in all the year was a great success and the class is looking forward to the next three years of high school.

Young, but definitely capable, are Frosh Class officers Treasurer Murphy, Secretary McIlraith, President Johnson and Vice President Lewis.

Be it football, basketball, baseball, wrestling, swimming, golf, tennis, cross country, or track contests, MVHS students support their teams.

Tom,

At last we're S-E-N-I-O-R-S. The years have gone fast but oh! have been fun. Getting to know you has been a highlight of these years. The days at the mat are unforgetable.

I can't think of much more to say but celebrate for one to be kept during senior week.

I'll always remember my good friend Tom, and MVHS.

Come and see me sometime and may all the luck in the world come to a wonderful guy. Love always, Mark Watkins.

Football is excitement in the rain
Basketball is a

Swimming is

And track and cross country are staccato feet on a cinder path.
Wrestling is muscle against muscle and tennis and golf are spring sunshine.

P.S. - Come and see me.

Expected to end up in the cellar, the Bulldogs surprised everyone this year by taking 4th in the league, establishing a 4 to 3 win — loss record in league play. The over-all season record was 4 wins, 5 losses. A thrilling victory over Anacortes started off league play. The Bulldogs came from behind 12—0 in the first half to score a 20—19 victory over the Seahawks.

Steve Barber, right, scores again for the Bulldog eleven.

Coaches Hake and Ringstad talk over Bulldog strategy.

Captain of "62" Bulldogs was Leroy Werkhoven. Other awards were given to Scott Thomas, blocking; Jock McIlraith, inspiration and gentleman athlete. Bill Williams was named first team half-back by the Northwest League and honorable mention awards went to Leroy Werkhoven, tackle; Scott Thomas, guard; George Vaughn, linebacker; and Mike Fisher, center.

In Northwest League Competition

Coaches Jim Beasley and Al Evans, below, guided their Frosh team through an undefeated season. They posted a 6–0 record while taking first place. The highlight of the season saw the Bullpups nipping Cascade in a 6–2 thriller, the first win over this team in three starts.

Frosh team members are, FIRST ROW: Singer, O'Brien, B. Johnson, Brooker, Rueb, Persons, Nakashima. SECOND ROW: Wendland, Faber, Heron, Galbreath, Hall, Flannigan, Cassidy, M. Great contributions toward a fine season were made by the football coaching staff. Head coach "Bud" Hake and assistant coach Roger Ringstad developed the varsity linemen and backs, respectively. The Green and White junior varsity was coached by Perry Brown and Mick Vivian. Coaches Jim Beasley and Al Evans coached another frosh team which assured bright hopes for future Bulldog teams.

Varsity managers Pete Cole, Reggie Bratz, Bob Beath, Phil Mills, and Jim Denning were the boys behind the Bulldogs for the 1962 season.

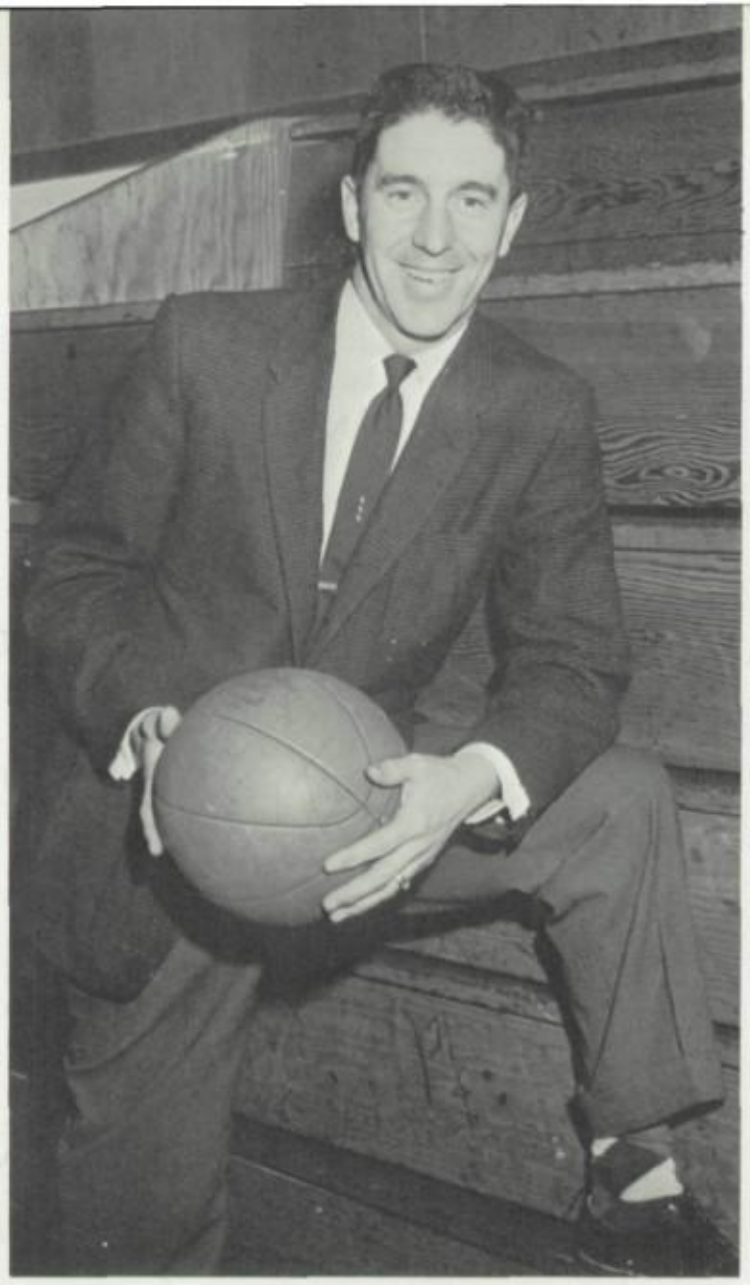
Bulldogs Fight Hard



Coach Bill Lee completes his second year at Mount Vernon High.

Ending a rugged season with a rash of impressive scores, the junior varsity squad, below, gave promise of good times to come.

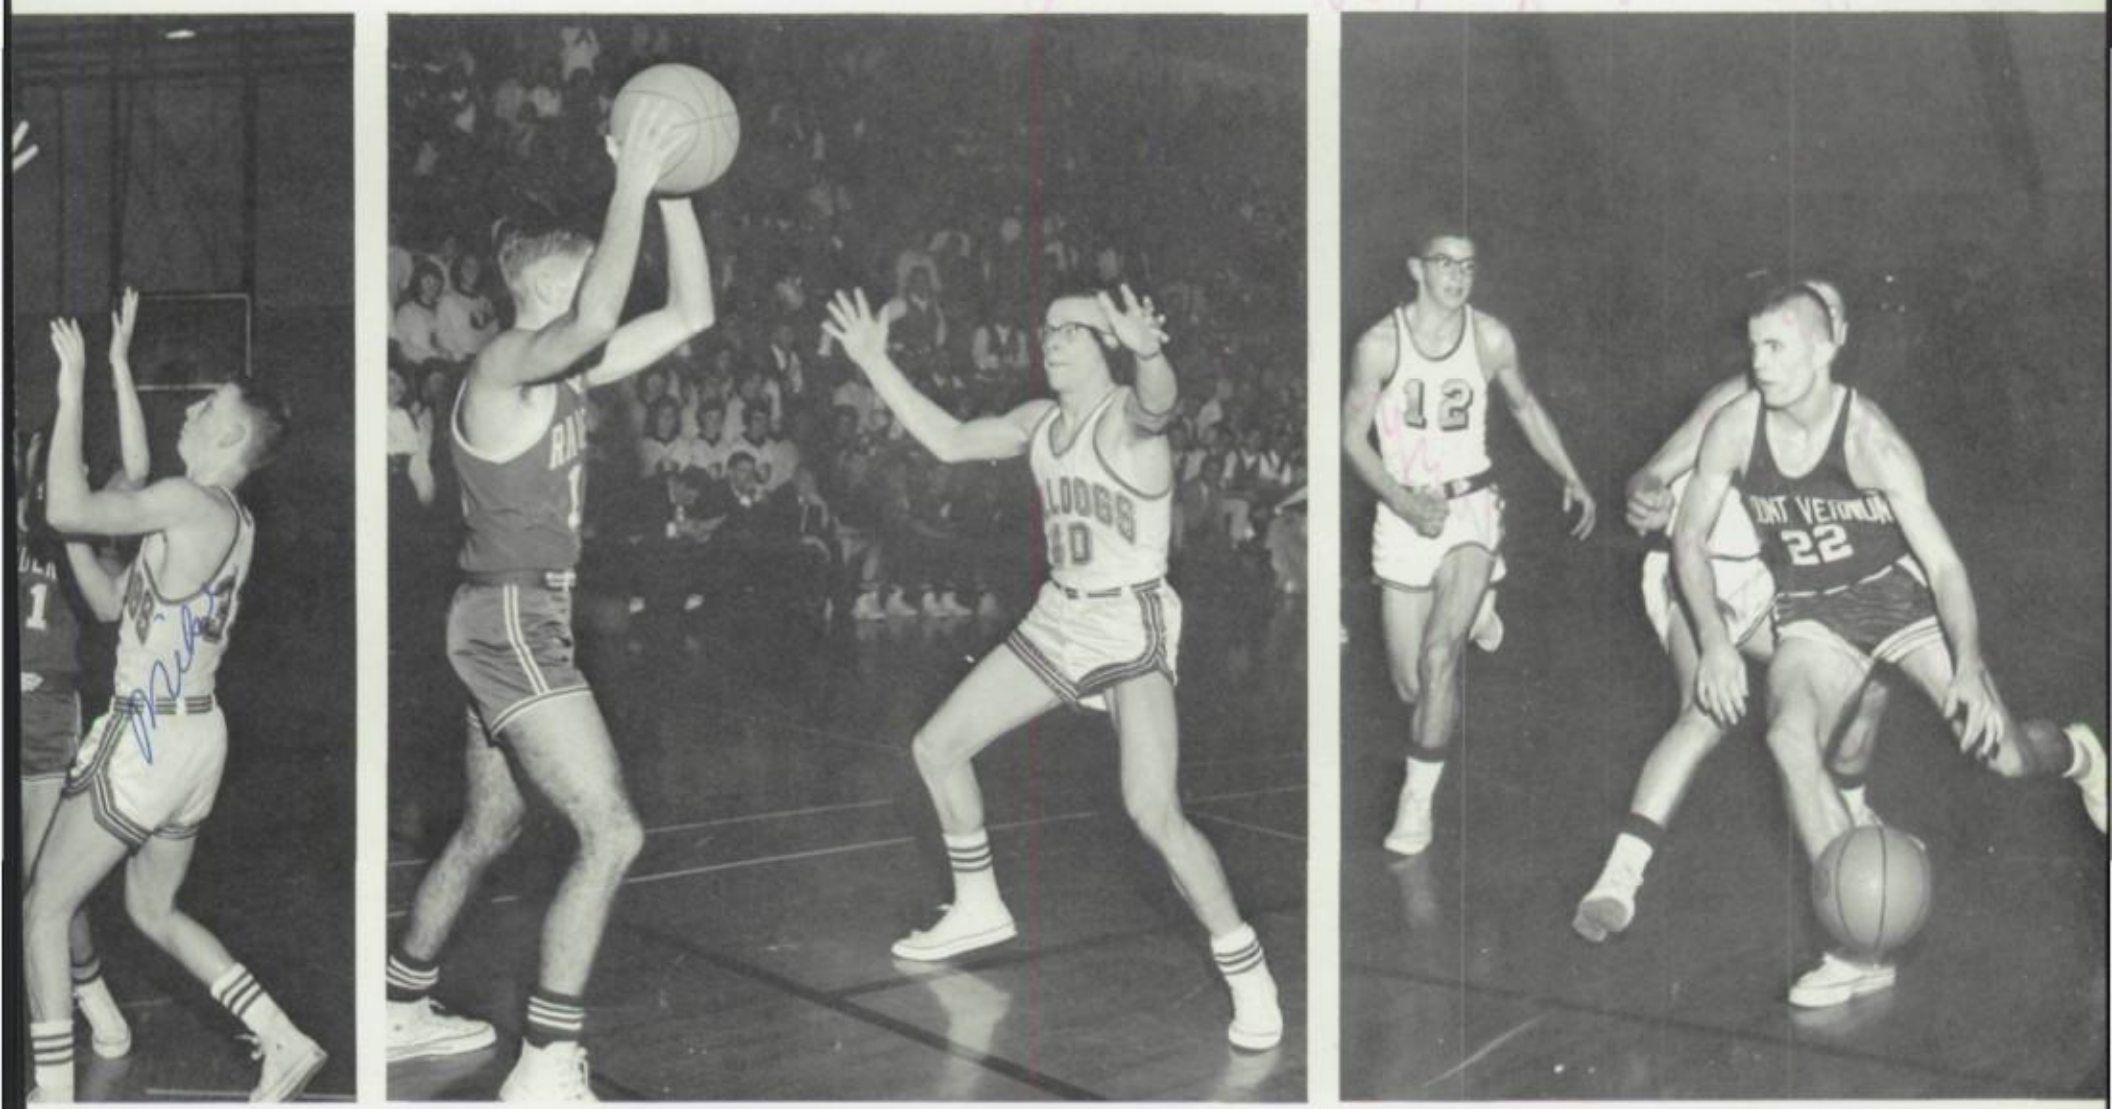
SECOND ROW: J. Moore, H. Ledesma, D. Abrahamson, R. Gudmunson, Denny Olson, J. Oftebro, N. Snyder, Coach Hake.

in Tight Northwest League Competition



Jack Egan, far left, goes up for a driving lay-in. Earl Smith gets ready to dunk one. Jerry Ellis shows some of his great defensive play. Bill Montgomery thwarts the Tiger defense.

Hoop fans saw one of the tightest NWL races in history, and Coach Bill Lee's troops were in the thick of it. With evenly matched teams throughout the circuit, it was as exciting a season as ever. Mount Vernon's Bulldogs looked as good as anyone and found themselves tied for first place after the first round.

Regardless of hard work and determination the second round proved disastrous. The hapless Bulldogs watched the ball bounce the other way as they dropped five straight. At the close of the season the teetering and tottering Bulldogs were in sixth place, eliminating them from the Northwest AA Tournament.

The Bulldog hoopsters compiled a season record of 10 wins and 8 losses. Lost through graduation will be Seniors: Jerry Ellis, Earl Smith, Jerry Olson, Sandy Farley, and Bill Montgomery.

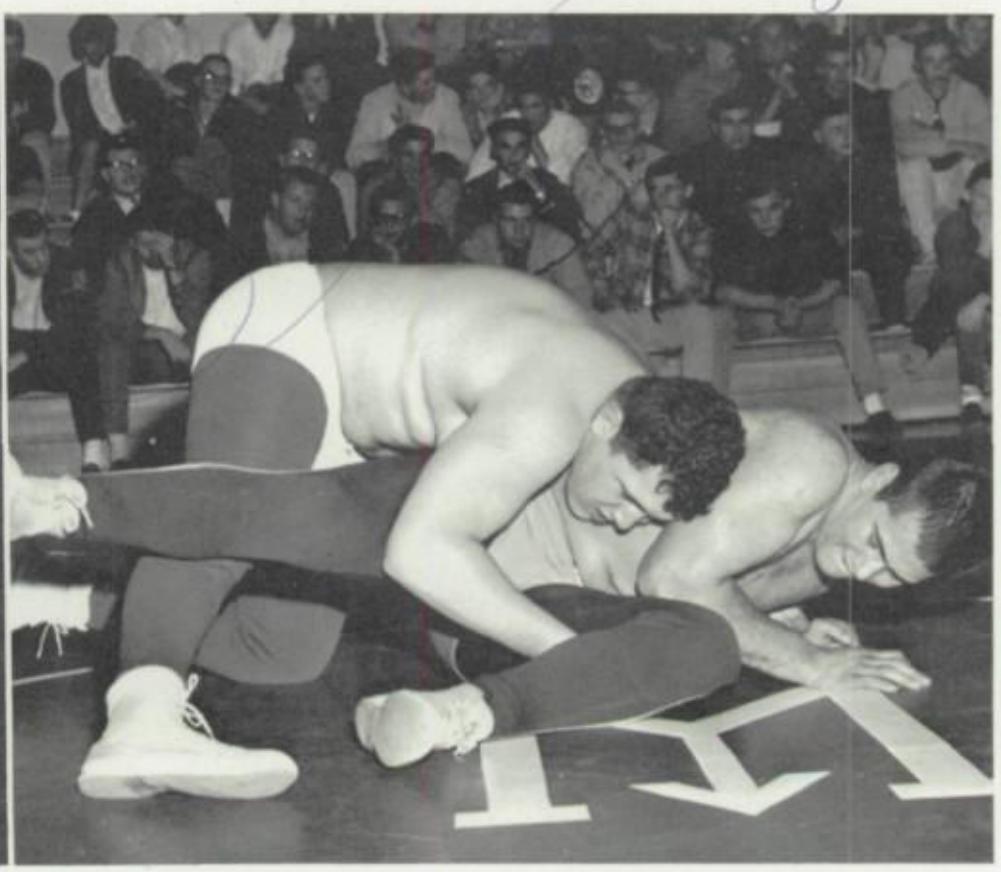
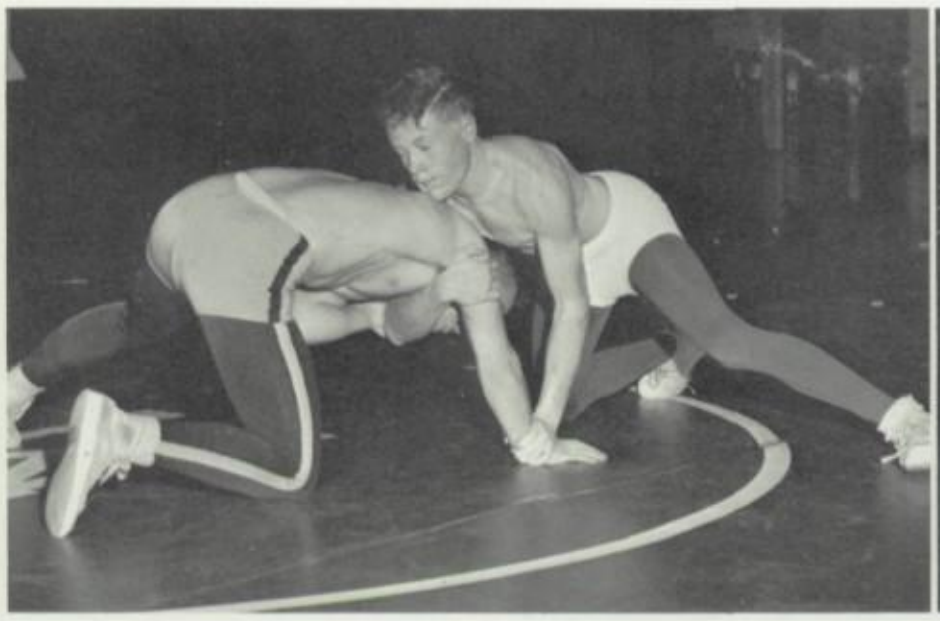
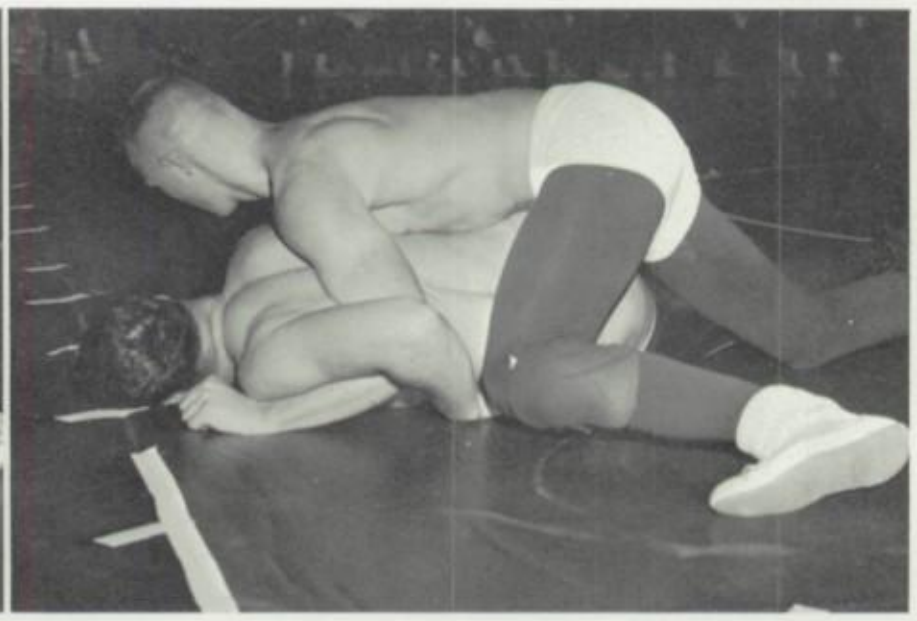
Competition but Face Bad Luck at State Meet

Sieg



Joe Parker, above, undefeated in league play and 4th in state, gets set to stack his man up in a match with Burlington. John Smalley, below left, tries to get his man on the mat from a front head lock. Leroy Werkhoven, below right, 2nd in the state this year, is about to pin his man by putting a half-nelson on him. Scott Thomas, above left, 154 pound class weight, struggles to gain the upper hand in a home match with Burlington.

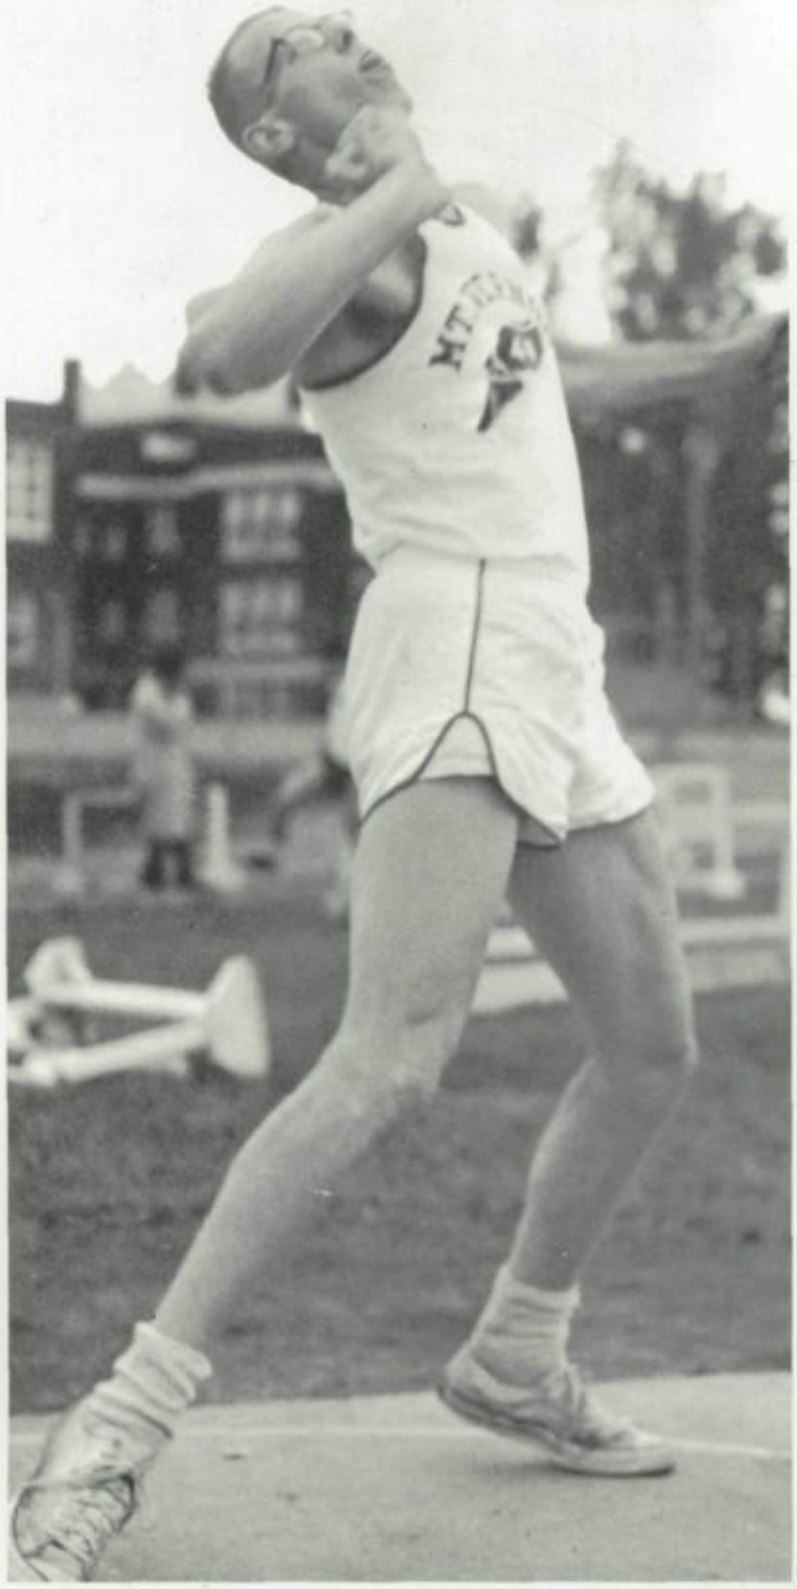




Mr. Reiman's wrestlers did it again. For the third year in a row they were the Northwest League co-champions. Their only league loss, coming at the hands of the Oak Harbor Wildcats, was only by two points 22—20. Out of last year's state championship team there were four returning wrestlers. Those four, who helped make this another excellent year for Coach Reiman, were Steve Hanson, John Smalley, Leroy Werkhoven, and Scott Masonholder. These were not the only boys who made this year's team a success.

Others on the squad were: Sid Greenwald, 103 pound division; Jerry Ranger, 112; John Smalley, 120; Don McMoran, 127; Gary Iverson, 133; Ray Struthers, 138; John Spear, 145; Scott Thomas, 154; Mike Fisher, 164; Scott Masonholder, 175; Leroy Werkhoven, 191 and Joe Parker, unlimited weight. John Smalley was undefeated all year; Scott Masonholder and Leroy Werkhoven were undefeated in league play and Mike Fisher was undefeated except for the last match against Sedro-Woolley.

Championship Spirit Mark



Leroy Werkhoven, above, finds it hard to get the javelin to go where he wants it to go as he gets set for his last throw.

Jerry Ellis, left, meets keen competition as he throws the shotput during the county finals.

Bill Williams, right, gets set to fake his final throw in the javelin during an important meet with Burlington.

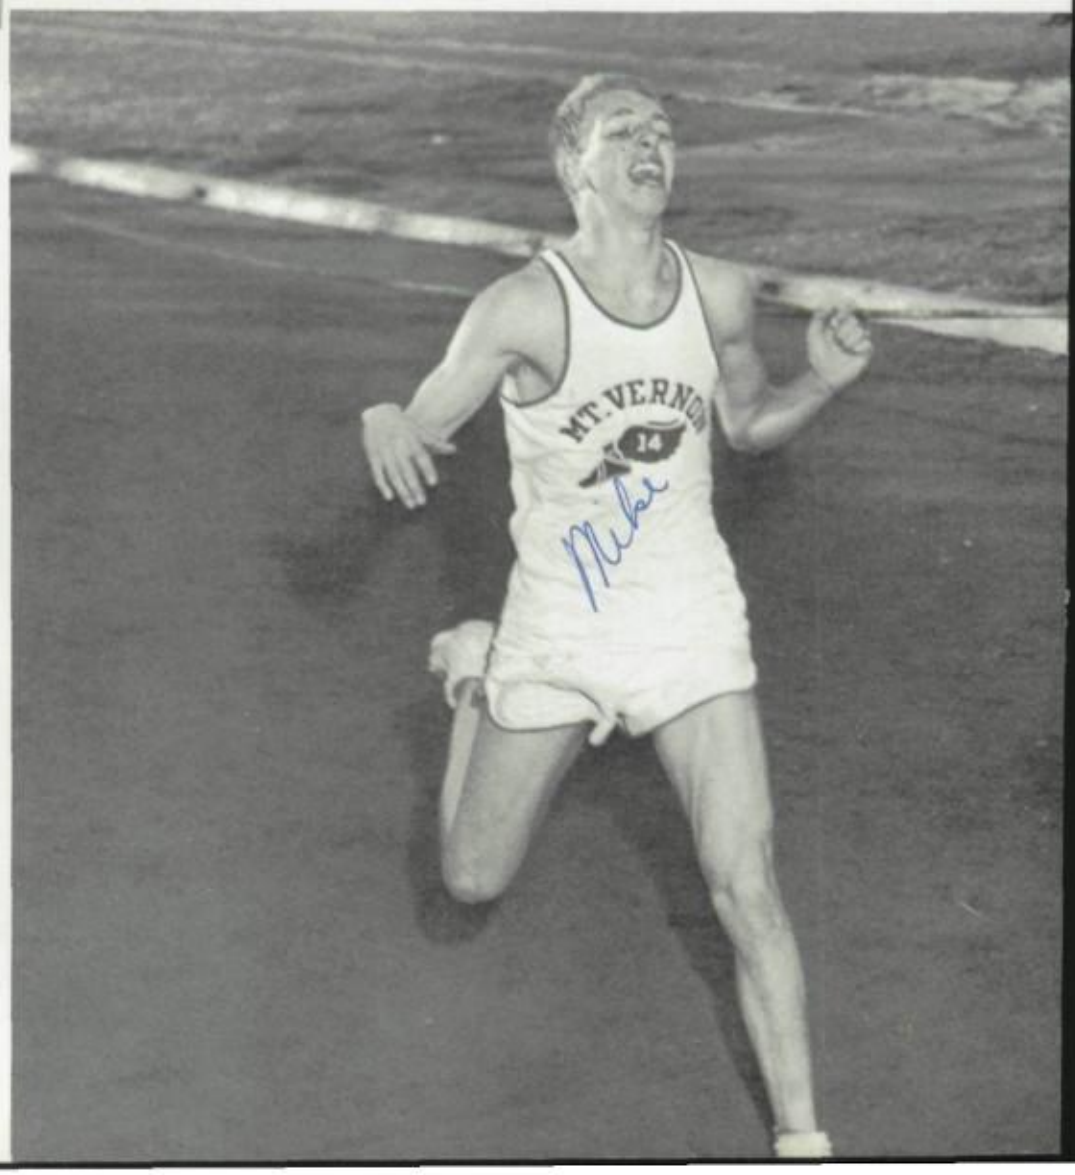
Mike Mowrer, below, takes first place in the 880 run, while Hugh Flanary checks his time.

Joe Murphy's track team again took the field to see if they could capture the county championship for the third year in a row.

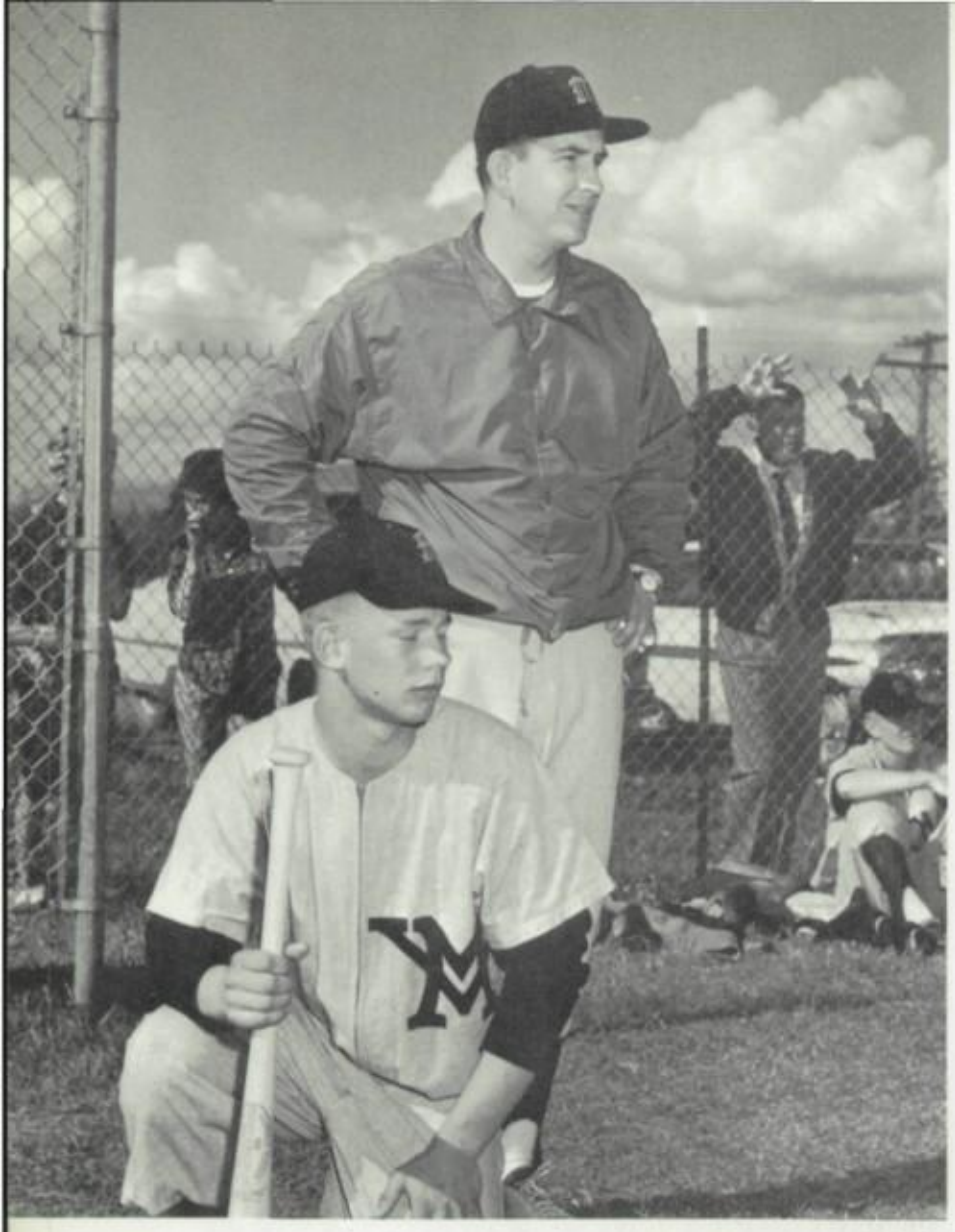
Returning juniors and seniors made it one of the strongest teams in the past couple of years. Senior lettermen were: Bill Montgomery in the 880 and mile relay; Jerry Ellis, shotput, high jump, and 880 relay; Bill Williams in the 100 and 200 yard dash and javelin; Danny Raymond, 100 yard dash, 440 yard dash, 880 relay; Earl Smith, discus; Mike Mowrer, mile relay and 880 yard run; Ken Needles in the mile; Jack Hammond in the mile.

Junior track members who greatly helped the team were: Gary Smith in the mile; Howard Tronsdal in the mile relay; Steve White in the 440; Tim Rosenhan in the discus; Howard Kennison in the mile and mile relay; Ron Everett in the high and low hurdles; and Felix Harke in the high and low hurdles.

The freshman squad also had a successful season and should greatly help next year's team.



63 Track Season



Bulldog Spirit Evident

When turnout for baseball came around, Coach Al Evans found sixteen returnees from last year's squad.

Among these were first-stringers; however, many were lacking in experience. Up to help make a winning season was a good group of junior varsity and freshmen players. The team of 1963 looked strong in all positions, and the only thing that kept them from winning too many games was bad weather.

The returning lettermen were led by fast-ball pitcher, Jerry Olson. Others on the squad were George Vaughn, Jack Andrews, Gary Crawford, Butch Hrnicek, Rick Gudmunson, Fred Lee, Gary Iverson, Jack Egan, Jock McIlraith, Jim Oftebro, Ken Parsons, Ron Lind, Jerry Thomas, Rich Shelby, and Ken Rice.

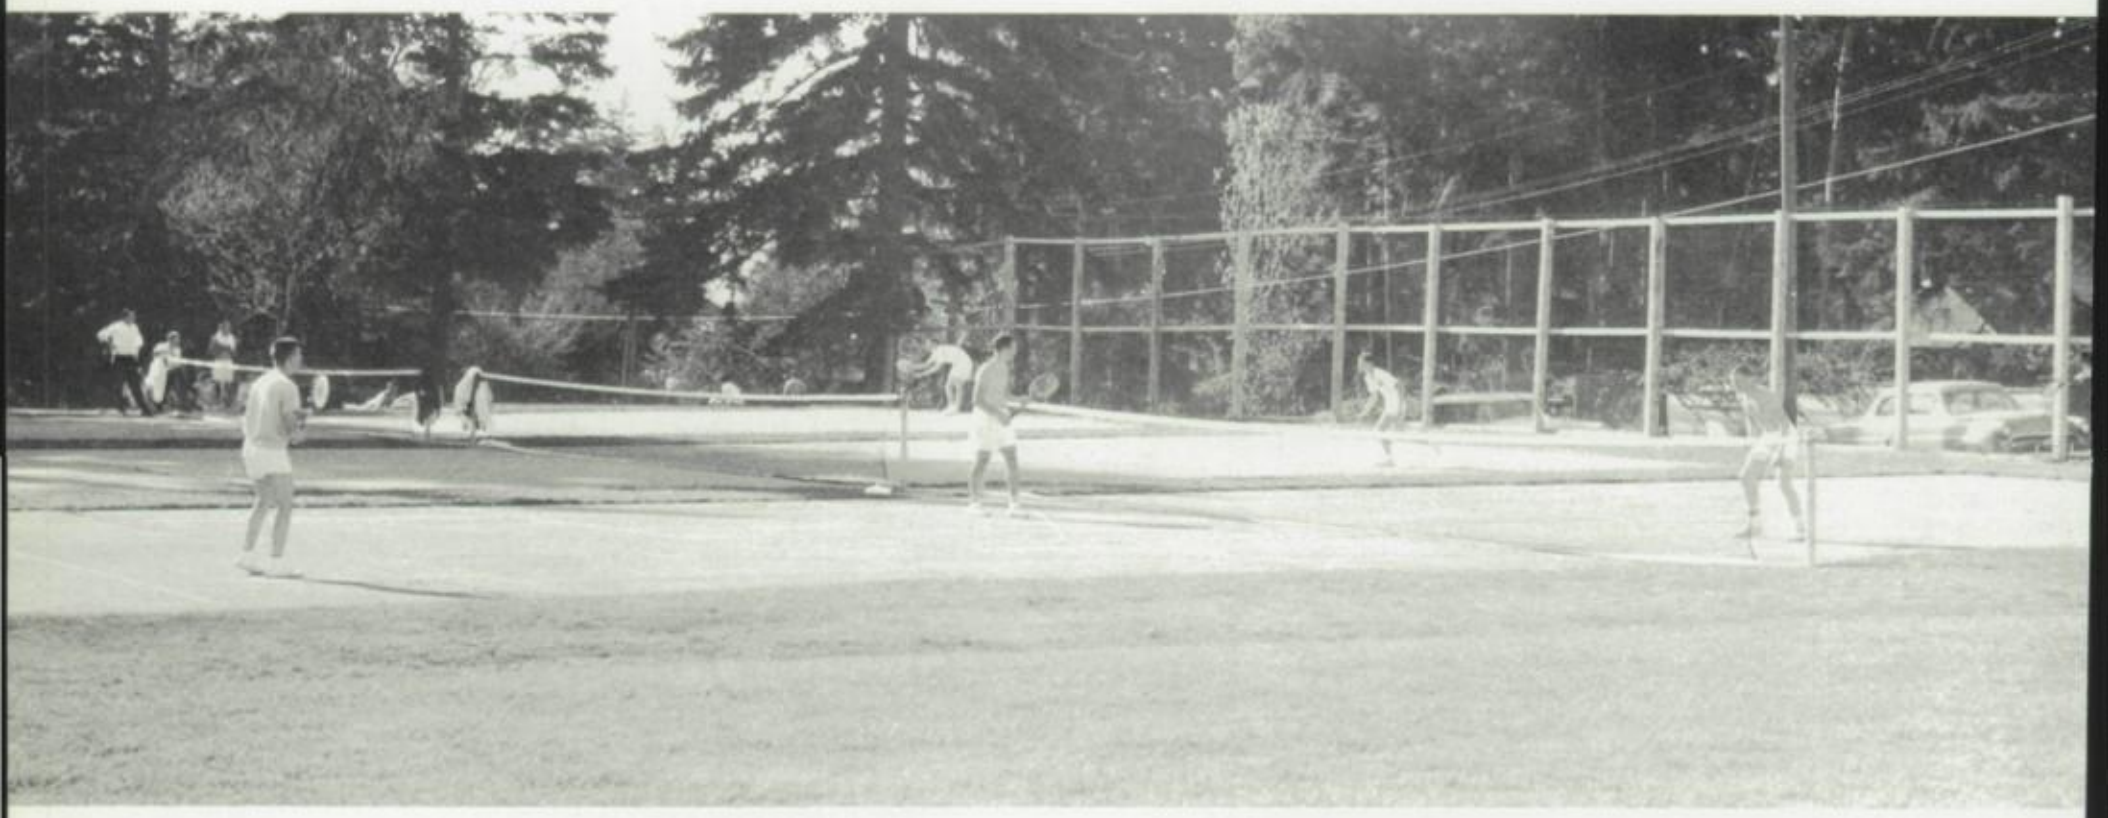
Tennis Courts and Golf Course Are Kept Busy



Tennis squad members practice hard for the next week's match at Hillcrest Park courts.

High schools throughout the country are putting more and more emphasis on the participation sports such as golf, tennis, and swimming, which help the individual develop a skill in a sport that he will enjoy and be able to participate in for the rest of his life.

Large numbers of students are encouraged to turn out and every afternoon in the spring there is an exodus from the Mount Vernon High campus as members of the tennis team head for the courts at Hillcrest Park. Their hours of practice paid off as this year's team was one of the best in the league. Superb strategy and dogged determination won them many victories throughout the season. Turning in fine performances were Senior Joe Parker and Junior Steve Moen. Sophomores Bob Shepard, Jay Kirkevold, Darrell McCluney, and David Loomis did a very fine job and should prove to be a great asset to next's year's team.

Mr. Dixon was coach of this popular springtime sport.

Rick Stupa, center, gets set to return a swift serve by one of his opponents.

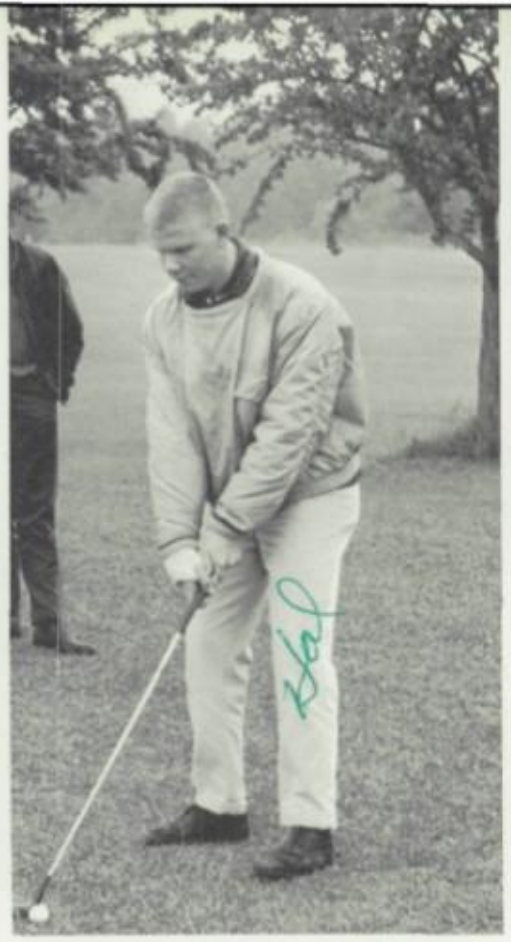
With Spring Sports



One of the fastest growing sports in American high schools is golf. Some may say it is a ridiculous game in which you hit a ball with a club and hit it again until you land it into a cup. But after trying it once, most students agree it reauires co-ordination and intelligence to be an accomplished golfer. All sports are played for enjoyment, and golf is no exception because it is enjoyed by all men and women, young and old.

The Bulldog golf team was coached by Mr. Day this spring. Although heavily hit through graduation, Coach Day had enthusiastic veterans such as Ron Karr, Gay Polson, Mike Lewis, Jim Spurgeon, Tom Phipps, and Nick Snider to work with.

Addressing the ball is Ron Karr, upper left, proving it is true that all presidents play golf.
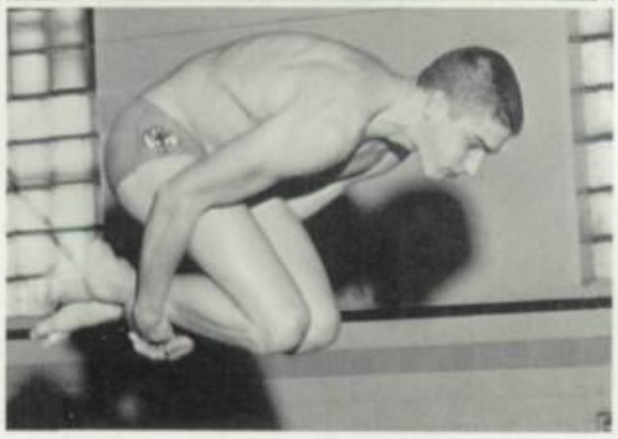
Tom Phipps, right, is taking his turn at trying to sink this long one.
Nick Snider, below, is taking careful aim while teammates watch his form.

Swimmers and Cross Country



Senior members of the swimming team were, from the top, Glenn Richardson, Lou LaMay, Larry Spear, Ron Karr, Scott McKenna, and Steve Barber.

Bulldog varsity swimmers, FIRST ROW: Spane, Richardson, Barber, Bergstrom, Bustad, Howson, LaMay. SECOND ROW: Downs, Karr, Cass, Kooy, McKenna, Etherington, Eldridge, Spear, Smiley.

The team elected Co-captains Steve Barber and Lou LaMay. Among those qualifying for state were: Barber, LaMay, Richardson, Etherington, Bustad, Bergstrom and Howson.

This year's team had much determination and spirit. Led by a few upperclassmen, the team was mainly composed of sophomores which should make for a great team next year. The most surprising meet of the year was against Bellevue, a highly ranked team in the state; true they eased the Bullfish 49—48, but it was a physical victory, not a moral one.

Able Student Leaders Make MVHS's Biggest

1962-63 ASB officers, President Ron Karr, Vice President Steve Barber, Secretary Jean Olson, Treasurer Lou LaMay, and Assistant Treasurer Kris Leander, take a close look at the ASB office's "Bulldog."

Kris Leander, assistant treasurer, makes out a check that will pay one of the ASB bills.

A change has taken place in student council this year. Instead of the former procedure of calling meetings at perhaps inconvenient times for some, a sixth period study hall has been set up for all ASB representatives. This enables Mr. Ringstad, activity advisor, to call a meeting any time it is necessary. If a particular committee has anything which needs to be discussed, all that needs to be said is "Let's have order."

This year the all-school project, organized by the Student Council, was the addition of portable bleachers in the gym. A sign saying "Home of the Bulldogs" was furnished for the football bleachers by the student council at the beginning of the year.

Mount Vernon sent five delegates to the Girls' and Boys' State Conferences held this summer at CWSC in Ellensberg. Bev Hunter, Ruth Ann Forbes, Ron Karr, Steve Barber, and Stan Nelson attended. These conventions, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, are held each year to teach the principles of city government to the student leaders of today and the community leaders of tomorrow.

Girls' and Boys' Staters, Bev Hunter, Ruth Ann Forbes, Steve Barber, Ron Karr, Stan Nelson, take an opportunity to talk over some of the experiences they had at the meetings held last summer.

Year the Best Ever

Students hear the latest reports on the happenings of student council through the minutes, accurately recorded by Jean Olson, ASB secretary.

One of the busiest men at school is Ron Karr, above, Associated Student Body president for 1962-63. Just one of his duties is planning and taking notes for the day's activities.

Lou LaMay, below, handles the financial details for the student body as ASB treasurer.

Scholarship and Leadership Are Rewarded by Something new has come to the student council. For the first time representatives were elected for the entire year rather than one semester.

Honor Society and Student Council Membership

President Bill Schuh, Secretary-Treasurer Rosalind Olson and Vice-President Jack Egan were of great assistance in making this year's honor society the proud active group it was.

Acquiring a grade-point average of 3.2 or above makes students eligible for membership in the Mount Vernon High School Honor Society. The "top" sophomores, juniors, and seniors make up this large organization.

They wear their tiny white pins proudly, and all participate in all phases of school life.

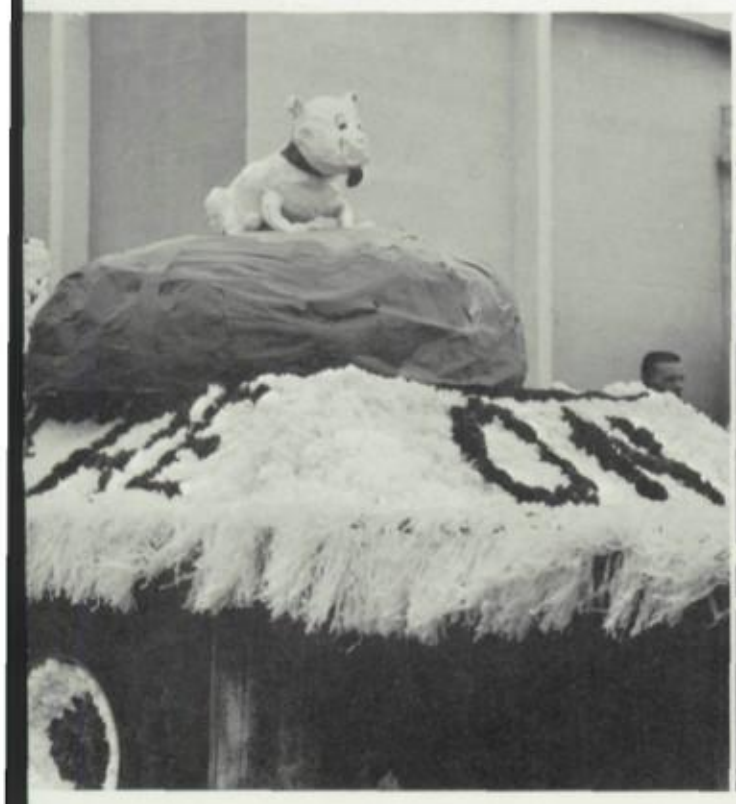
Beauty and Gaiety,

Queen Janie Nelles regally reigned over homecoming activities. Members of her court were Janet Ferguson and Janet Ellestad, senior princesses, and Judy Hoback and Nancy Jansen, junior princesses.

Green and white shone as the float parade followed the homecoming royalty through town. "We're on Top" put the sophomore entry, above center, on top, and eagle feathers and a happy bulldog won for the senior Tri-Hi-Y.

With neat footwork, and good blocking by Bill Williams and George Vaughn, Jerry Ellis got out of the mess below to score, as did Dean Anderson, who received congratulations, below right.

Make MVHS Homecoming Week Big Success



A great homecoming — a successful everything! While Arlington drilled on our Bulldog's tactics, Mount Vernon was having its greatest homecoming week ever. It all began on Monday morning, October 22, with the coronation of Queen Janie Nelles and her court. Senior princesses were Janet Ellestad and Janet Ferguson; junior princesses were Judy Hoback and Nancy Jansen. Wednesday everyone wore black as a symbol of "death to the Eagles." Thursday was letterman's day climaxed by the serpentine and bonfire. Green and white were worn on Friday, and a pep assembly and car parade highlighted the day.

That evening, the clouds moved away as the Bulldogs, leading all the way, defeated Arlington 35—12. Queen Janie was crowned during the half-time and the Pep Club and the band performed.

Homecoming came to a close with the dance, "Stardust," at the Y. Music was provided by the Nocturnes. A coffee hour was held in the cafeteria after the game, honoring the class of "53."

To Have a Successful Year

Reigning over the Sweetheart Dance this year were Queen Susie Sutjipto and King Sandy Farley. Other members of the court were Princess Bev Hunter and Prince Bill Montgomery, right.

To encourage and maintain a spirit of friendship, loyalty and kindness is the purpose of the Mount Vernon High School's Girls' Club. This year it was ably led by President Bev Hunter, Vice President, Gay Brazas, Secretary Ann Hodgin, and Treasurer Linda Harant. Girls' Club activities began in September with the first after-game dance. The BoGiHaPa, bake sales, and the coffee hour for the 1953 alumni at the Homecoming game were the special events of October. After the Christmas program with the style show as the main attraction, February brought the Sweetheart Dance and the exciting March of Dimes Games, in which the Seniors were victors. March brought the all-important Career Day for the student body's benefit. With April came the Girls' Club Tolo. May's activities concluded the year with the annual Mothers' Tea featuring entertainment and the installation of new officers.

Student Horizons Are Widening Along with

Enabling the girls to indulge in physical education and learning the fundamentals of sportsmanship, G.A.A., the Girls' Athletic Association, brings sports activity into their environment.

Earning 800 points entitles them to a letter sweater and with an increasing number of points, stripes are earned.

Besides swimming, bowling, volleyball, badminton, softball and many other activities this group enjoys fund-raising projects for the all-school project.

Leading the organization this year were left, Pres., Nancy Shepard; Vice Pres., Lou Inda Heron; Sec., Mary Beth Light; Treas., Janet Minor; Cabinet members for the 1962-63 year were, below, left to right, Kathy Swanson, Mary Cleave, Darla Andrews, Darlyn O'Leary, Carolyn Farnsworth, Cristie Weckert, Linda Axelson.

Thespians is a dramatic national honor society. To become a member students must participate in dramatic activities, both speaking parts and crew work.

Officers for the past year were, right, Pres., Steve Tarry; Vice Pres., John Hudson; Sec., Ann Russell; Treas., John Eells.

The Skill They Gain in Various Interests

Future Nurses of America, a newly formed club at Mount Vernon High School, was successfully led through its second year by President Mary Beth Light, Vice President Barbara Kennon, Secretary Pam Mitchell, and Treasurer Donna Dahl. Members visited the sick and worked at the hospital and attempted to interest more students in nursing as a career.

Enjoying a second language, Spanish Club members carried on their meetings in Spanish. Advised by Mr. Fryer and Miss Hofer, the club is active in many school functions and encourages an interest in foreign languages. The officers, below, were Treasurer Gary Tyacke; Secretary Carol Jorgenson, Vice President Melody Greve, President Neil Jorgenson.

Inspiring school and community activities, Horizon Club again this year proved it was always ready to put forth its best in civic and school functions. In charge of operations were, left, President Gerene Williams, Secretary Nancy Doph, Vice President Mandy Light, Treasurer Arlene Nakashima.

Club Activities Make Student Life at MVHS

Working for the national Red Cross, our school raised $160 this year to aid people in distressed areas. Members are: Chris Weckert, Dick Hodgin, representing the freshmen; Peggy Morelan, John Bustad, sophomores; Judy Thompson, Mary Rygmyr, Curt Wylie, juniors; Fred Lee, Jean Olson, and Drive Chairman Janie Nelles, seniors.

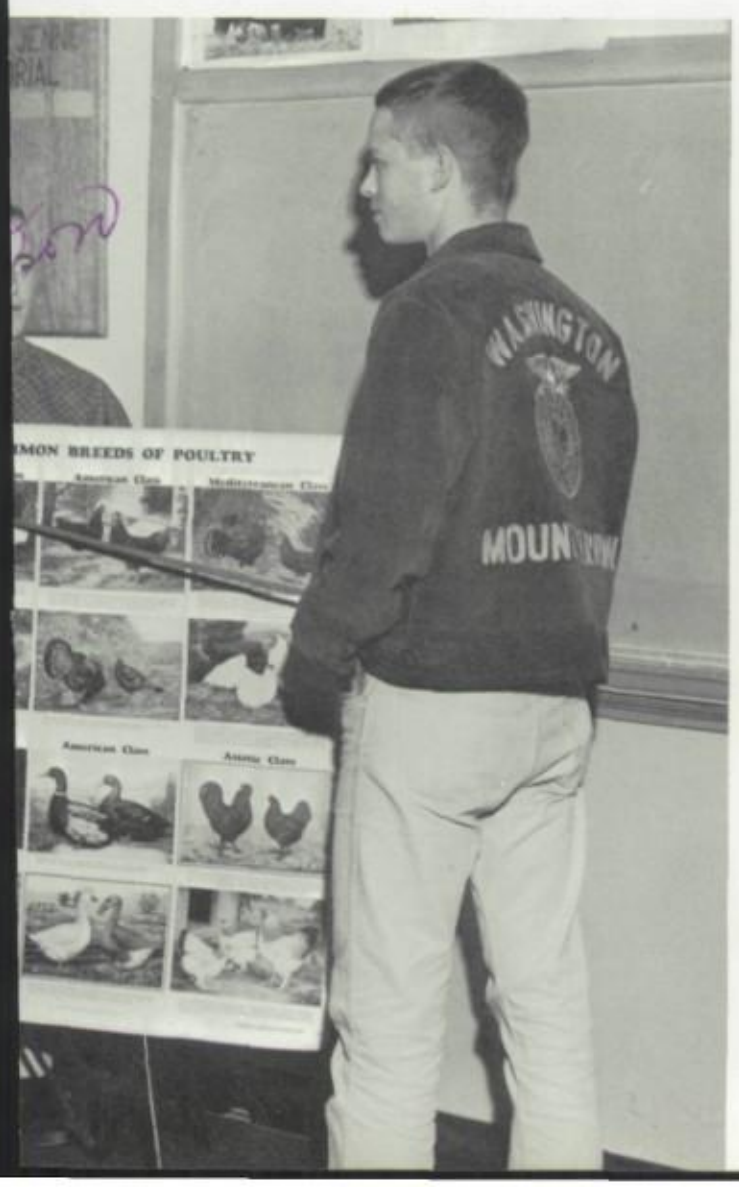
Future Teachers of America is set up for students interested in a teaching career. Advised by Mrs. Chicoratich and Mr. Fite, FTA gives students a valuable insight into the teaching profession. Officers, below, are Jan Pock, treasurer; Sharon Knudson, president; and Fran Hegdal, secretary. Bev Hunter, not pictured, is vice president.

FFA is a club designed to build character in its members while giving them practical experience in agricultural techniques. The group was lead by President Stan Nelson, Vice President Don McMoran, Secretary Monte Jones and Treasurer Ken Leander.

nteresting and Useful

Brannigan Tri-Hi-Y officers and members can chalk up a busy 1962-63 year. The Junior-Senior girls' football game was one of the year's first highlights. Later followed the YMCA banquet, senior citizens party, style show, and various other money-making projects. Leading the group in their senior year were: President Janet Ellestad, Vice President Marcia Bloom, Secretary Cynthia Giard, Treasurer Carol Sollie and Chaplain Jan Chenaur.

One of the most active YMCA sponsored groups at MVHS was the Martin Fowler Hi Y. Contributions were made to the all-school project and World Service Funds through the club money-making project of cutting wood. Club officers for the year were President Steve Strom, Vice President Fred Lee, Secretary Ron Karr, Treasurer Gary Lee, Chaplain Cliff Highnam, and Sergeant-at-Arms Rob Thompson.



Mount Vernon's thirty members of Future Homemakers of America have been busy. Pie bakes, magazine drives, and Christmas baskets took up much of their time. The club's goal is to establish a scholarship. Officers are President Lynn Anne Soma, Vice President Nancy Lowe, and Secretary Treasurer Diane Holmes.

Together Cheerleaders and Pep Club Have

Pep Club, a shining example of school spirit, created pride and interest in our high school's athletic events. Between fund-raising campaigns and poster paintings, Pep Club, during the half-time of basketball and football games, entertained the spectators with difficult marching maneuvers.

The significant white "M's" on the front of their uniforms stood out from the dominating green, making attractive and appropriate costumes for this busy and successful group.

Pep Club members, FRONT ROW: C. Murray, R. Forbes, J. Ellestad, J. Ferguson, L. Harant, K. Hawkins, M. Bloom, C. Giard, S. Johnson, J. Thompson, J. Beeman, J. Nelles, J. Helde, K. Everett, J. Soine, S. Anderson, K. Van Hoose, T. Johnson.

Worked to Create Enthusiasm for MVHS Sports

It's not just the team or the coach that wins a ball game, but the combination of these two, plus support. When we think of support we think of the MVHS cheerleaders who build the students' enthusiasm and school spirit down to the last second of every contest. They are chosen by the student body and lead the cheers and yells at all the games.

Student Journalists Use Pictures and Words

The way to remember the best years of our lives is by the Skagina; therefore, an accurate account of the year's happenings is the responsibility of the staff. The Skagina room, commonly called the "monkey cage" by the staff, was inhabited two hours a day all year by the editors-in-chief, Jan Chenaur and Kay Hawkins, who were busy, busy, all the time. When difficulties arose the yearbook advisors, Mrs. Hodson and Mrs. Chicoratich, were there to assist the editors. At the games, the dances, and nearly all of MVHS's activities, Walter R. Jackson is seen taking pictures. Incidently, candid shots seem to be his specialty.

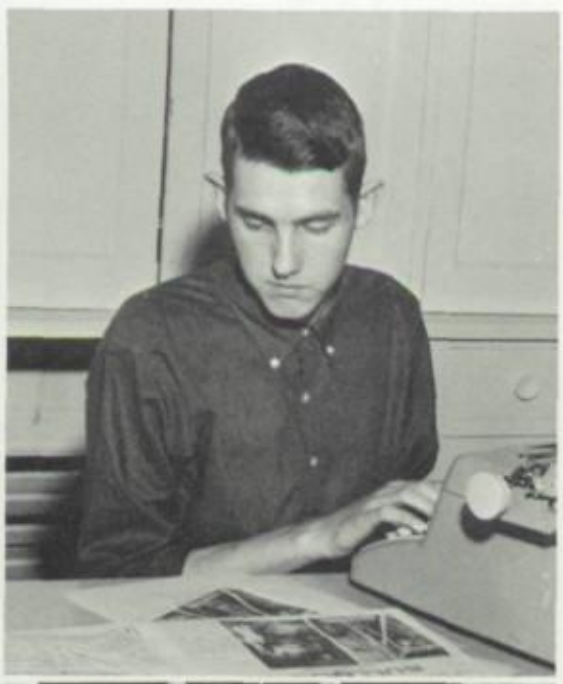
To Record Memories and Events of 1963

MVHS's newspaper, the Bulldog, is distributed every two weeks to keep the student body informed on recent student activities and happenings. The Bulldog is not a school activity but a lab project of the journalism class. The staff does the whole paper by themselves. This includes the typing and ad layouts. After that is completed it is sent to Marysville where it is printed by the Globe Newspaper Company.



Quill and Scroll is a high school journalism honorary for juniors and seniors working on school publications. These student journalists must meet certain membership requirements and be recommended by an advisor.

Nelson Phillips is editor of the Bulldog. He is often seen around school getting facts on the news-making events that have taken place at MVHS.

Bulldog and Skagina staff members who earned Quill and Scroll membership are, from the bottom: Mike Mowrer, Karl Blade, Pat Eckstrom, Merrily Forbes, Kitty Collins, Bill Williams, Jack Andrews, Nels Phillips, Jan Chenaur, Kay Hawkins, and Bill Montgomery. Ruth Ann Forbes is not in the picture.

Editor-in-chief at work, left. Nels Phillips types some articles for the next edition of the Bulldog.

Talent and Hours of Practice Combined in

Playing an important part in Mount Vernon High School's musical program is the choral department. Three major groups head the department. First, the Madrigals, majoring in music fundamentals; second, the Chansonettes, an all-girl group, with the accompaniment of Nancy Wilson on the piano; and third, the a cappella choir, a mixed group led, like the others, by Mr. Wright.

In all three groups are the leading vocalists of the school. The Chansonettes in their red dresses and the a cappella choir and Madrigals in new blazers provide delightful and interesting entertainment for school and community activities.

MVHS's Choral Groups

FIRST ROW: K. Stafford, S. Good, T. Millenaar. SECOND ROW: N. Sather, K. Schroer, E. Solima. THIRD ROW: M. Younker, M. Vander Pol, A. Hodgin, FOURTH ROW: C. Howell, C. Smith, P. Covert.

FIRST ROW: L. Auckland, S. McKenna. SECOND ROW: K. Etherington, T. Cannon. THIRD ROW: R. Olson, D. Vander Pol.

Smart, new white blazers added visually to the effectiveness of the programs presented by the Choir and the Madrigals, and the Chansonettes sparkled in their red dresses.

FIRST ROW: R. Sherman, C. Raymond, T. Pearson. SECOND ROW: J. Ellis, F. Lee, J. Snow. THIRD ROW: D. Havens, C. Crawford, S. Tarry.

FIRST ROW: G. Hanson, M. Swanson, P. Olson, D. Dixon. SECOND ROW: C. Snyder, K. Crafton, J. Crimm. THIRD ROW: M. Ellis, L. Eshuis, D. Loomis. FOURTH ROW: L. Tarry, D. de Leeuw, K. Younkin.

Music Swells as Mount Vernon High School's

Jan Pock, Fran Hegdahl, Gwen Dickenson, and Jim Hayton, above, are the band major and majorettes.

Band director, Elvin Haley, below, has built a strong musical organization in his years in Mount Vernon.

Mount Vernon High School is justly proud of its band. It is a marching and concert organization that performs with polished skill. Above is one section of the band. BACK ROW: Smiley, Pearson, Hatley. MIDDLE ROW: Eells, Thomas, F. Spane, Clausen, Munson, Hunter Ozaki, Raymond. FRONT ROW: Breathour, McGraw, Berg, Thomas, Farris, Foster. In the cross section of the band, below, are, BACK ROW: Connell, Hofstad, Kent, Spragg. MIDDLE ROW: Markus, Linn, T. Anderson, Wheatley. FRONT ROW: DeMeyer, Melland, A. Godwin, J. 'The Grass

It's a debatable question according to Judge Cool, played by Steve Tarry, Sheriff Steve Strom, and Deputy Neil Jorgenson.

Marilyn Johnston and Ken Rice, lower right, portraying Dolly and Colin Talbo, attempt to put the puzzle together as Vicky Bidwell, as Catherine Creek, looks on.

Harp," All-School Play, Draws Capacity Crowds

On the evenings of November 16 and 17, Mount Vernon High School presented the all-school play, The Grass Harp, a tragic, two-act comedy by Truman Capote. Under the direction of Mr. Tom Davis, the cast started rehearsal on September 16. For two months the actors studied every word, character, and movement until the performance approached perfection.

The play told the story of the struggle between two devoted sisters for possession of a secret recipe for a dropsy cure; the one personified a hard worldliness; the other, unselfish goodness. Dolly Talbo (Marilyn Johnston), her nephew Colin (Ken Rice), the old family servant (Vicki Bidwell), fled with the secret to their tree house in the woods where they were joined and protected by Judge Cool (Steve Tarry). Vera Talbo (Yerda Yearsley) and Dr. Ritz (John Eells led the aroused townspeople against the little group in the woods, but eventually they realized they were wrong.

Brigadoon

Standing at the church on their wedding day are the young lovers, portrayed by Marilyn Johnston and Darwin VanderPol.

Spectacular this year was Mount Vernon High School's musical presentation, Brigadoon. With the resemblance of professional stage settings, along with the most talented cast, the operetta faired among the best ever staged in our high school auditorium.

Cliff Highnam, Tommy Albright, and Darwin VanderPol, Charles Dalrimple, played the romantic leads. Portraying the opposite romantic role, as a double-cast, were Sue Danielson and Patti Erickson as Fiona MacLaren. All the comedy was provided by Steve Tarry and Ann Russell, as Jeff Douglas and Meg Brookie.

The stage was in the wilderness of Scotland where two hunters, Tommy and Jeff, became lost. They discovered a town where every day was one hundred days in the future. During the same day Tommy falls in love with a beautiful girl, Fiona. Although he loved her he could not stand to give up everything he had to marry her, so he left. Loneliness grew on him until he finally returned to her.

The production was staged and directed by Mr. Wright, and Mr. Fite did the choreography.

Cliff Highnam and Steve Tarry portray two Americans who have come to the enchanted village of Brigadoon.

Members of the orchestra, which plays for the operetta as well as concerts, are FIRST ROW: Carlson, N. Collins, R. Soren, N. Jamison, M. Lee, S. Danielson. SECOND ROW: N. Pierce, M. Russell, E. Harris, H. Herd, B. Kotsogean, C. Easton, R. Hardy, B. Elde and L. Wold.

Patti Erickson, a romantic lead, sings "Waiting for my Dearie" while Meg (Ann Pussell) and the chorus listen.

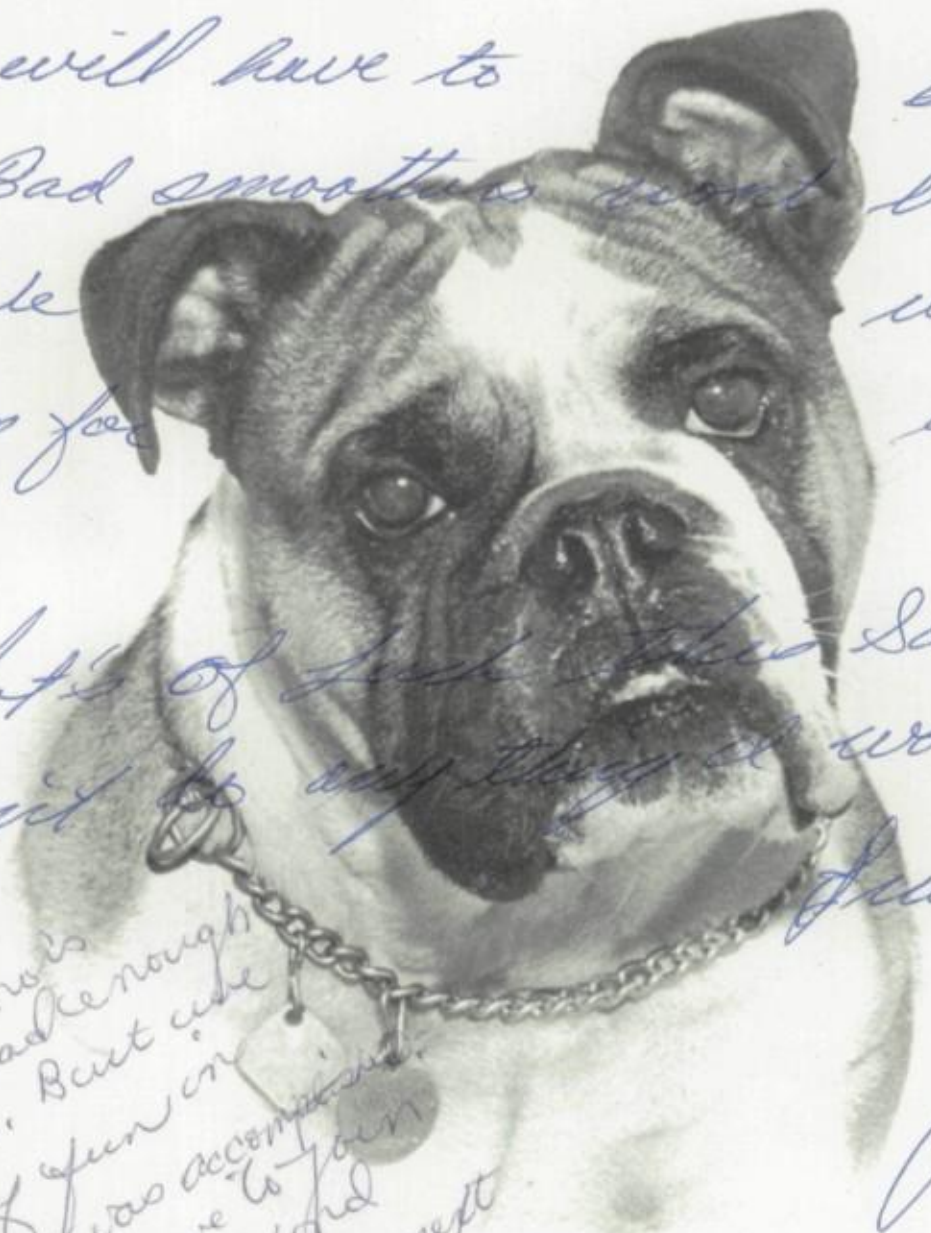
Tom Boy,

It has been really neat this year on all the big ones we've been on this year. I think we will have to do it up the summer. To Bad smoothie won't be here to go on a couple with us, but he'll make up for it when he gets back.



Lots of luck this Summer and don't do anything I wouldn't do.

Friends always,

Tom

Tom,
I think the seniors has just about had enough of the dogs in here. But we sure had a lot of fun on here although Ottie was accompanied. Next year we will have to form a Español club so that our school memories remain. Good luck next year as a senior.

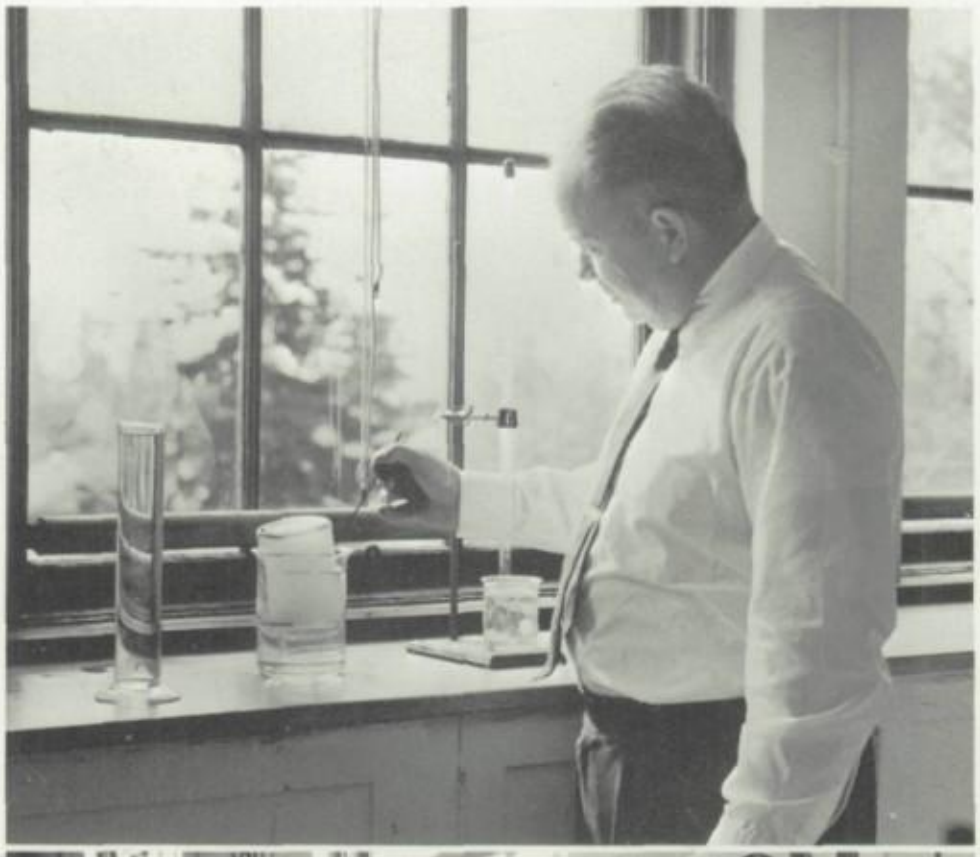
Regardless of the confusion — the dashing to misplaced classrooms — the crushing mob in the hallways — and a student body that has not only outgrown the auditorium, but one side of the gymnasium — we've lived through another year. We are destined to grow — sometimes painlessly — sometimes with the problems we've encountered this year. But this we remember — despite the difficulties, classes went on, students continued to study, and by spring we were used to the problems. We had taken them in stride as only MVHS could do.



Dear Tom —

I received your note and was very glad to hear from you. I did not receive your card from Reno, but I'm sure it was very pretty. Reno is a fine place to visit, but I wouldn't like to live there.

Yes, I'm still in Sacramento. I'm in the 12th grade at Sacramento High School. I'm taking Physics, Trigonometry, Advanced Math, Journalism, and Public Speaking. I'm also on the staff of the school newspaper and yearbook. I'm very busy with school activities and studies.

Tom, I'm sorry to hear that you're having trouble in Algebra. I'm not very good in Math myself, but I'll try to help you as much as I can. Perhaps we can get together sometime and study.

It wasn't too cool in Ad. Math. at the first of the year, but it has been a lot of fun in study hall. Too bad we can't work in the same room? We won't even be able to take fine at the same time. Too bad you can't come up North, but you will probably have more fun in Oregon. Lots of luck as a senior.
